CASE NUMBER:

PETITIONER(S)

V.

~~US CBP / ICE / DHS~~

RESPONDENT(S)

Petition for Adding respondent(United States;DIHS;OMDC;DVA;PIDC,Akimova;Vella;Chambers Langill to the case 2:21-cv-10824-MWC-DTB

Pursant to Local Rule 5-4.1, all subsequent documents in this case must be filed electronically, unless exempted by Local Rule 5-4.2. Documents exempt from electronic filling pursuant to Local Rule 5-4.2(b), or presented by filers exempt from electronic filing pursuant to Local Rule 5-4.2(a). Local Rule 83-2.4

Please accept adding respondents to the case: United States;DIHS Department Immigration Health Services; OMDC ; DVA ; PIDC ; ,Akimova;Vella;Chambers;Langill basis on the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 21 governs adding or removing a respondent-defendant after a complaint is filed. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 21 states that "parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motions of any stage of the actions and on such terms as are just". Thus,to add or remove a respondent-defendant, counsel should make a motion for leave to amend the petition-complaint to add the appropriate party.

See, e.g., Kong v. United States, 62 F.4th 608, 616–17, 620 (1st Cir. 2023) ("We hold that § 1252(g)'s jurisdictional bar for claims 'arising from' the government's decision to 'execute removal orders' does not preclude jurisdiction over ... [immigrant's] FTCA [Federal Tort Claims Act] claims for false arrest, false imprisonment, and a violation of the MCRA [Massachusetts Civil Rights Act], all based on ICE's alleged illegal detention of him."); "Here, Kong does not challenge the decision to try to execute his removal. Kong claims that his renewed detention in 2018 was unlawful because the government—by relying on a decades-old warrant and failing to adhere to regulatory procedures—neither offered nor proved any 'special justification' that existed at that time to outweigh his 'constitutionally protected interest in avoiding physical restraint.' ... These assertions of illegal detention are plainly collateral to ICE's prosecutorial decision to execute Kong's removal—which, as noted above, Kong does not challenge.

Ask You Honorable please do not denied. Thank you!.
