PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS

CAUSE WITHIN THREE DAYS;
COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY
AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Challenge to Unlawful Incarceration
Under Color of Immigration Detention
Statutes; Request for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief

Agency File No.

1 Petitioner MERCY IDROGO BONIFAZ petitions this Court for a writ of habeas
2 corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 to remedy Respondents detaining him unlawfully, and 3 states as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Petitioner, MERCY IDROGO BONIFAZ (“Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz” or “Petitioner”),
6 is a young Peruvian man detained at the Otay Mesa Detention Center in San Diego,
7 California. Petitioner, by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby files this petition
8 for writ of habeas corpus and complaint for declaratory and injunctive relief to compel
9 his immediate release from immigration detention where he has been held by the U.S.
10 Department of Homeland Security (DHS) since being unlawfully re-detained on 11 November 17, 2025, without first being provided a due process hearing to determine
12 whether his incarceration is justified. Petitioner was previously released on September 13 18, 2022 by DHS on conditional parole pursuant to INA section 236 (8 U.S.C. § 1226)
14 after a determination that he was neither a flight risk nor a danger to the community.

15 2. Petitioner further submits this habeas petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 for a judicial 16 check on Respondents’ administrative decisions to detain him under 8 U.S.C.
17 § 1225(b)(2), INA § 235(b)(2), despite the authority to do so in that Petitioner is not an 18 applicant for admission nor is he seeking admission. And because the government 19 purports to hold him under § 1225(b)(2), it has not provided him with an individualized
20 bond hearing to challenge his detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), INA § 236(a),
21 contravening his rights under the Immigration and Nationality Act and the Fifth 22 Amendment’s Due Process Clause.
23

1 3. Petitioner seeks declaratory and injunctive relief to compel his immediate release
2 from the immigration jail where he has been held by the U.S. Department of Homeland
3 Security (DHS) since being unlawfully re-detained on November 17, 2025, without first 4 being provided a due process hearing to determine whether his incarceration is justified.

5 4. Absent review in this Court, no other neutral adjudicator will examine Petitioner's
6 plight: Respondents will continue to detain him in violation of the law essentially
7 indefinitely. Petitioner thus urges this Court to review the lawfulness of his detention;
8 declare that his detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) is unlawful; order either his 9 immediate release or that, at a minimum, Respondents provide him a bond hearing
10 complying with the procedural requirements in Singh v. Holder, 638 F.3d 1196 (9th Cir.
11 2011).

12 5. Petitioner must be released from custody unless and until DHS proves to a neutral
13 adjudicator, by clear and convincing evidence, material changed circumstances 14 (including that he is a flight risk and/or a danger to the community) that would justify 15 cancelling Petitioner's release from ICE custody on September 18, 2022 on conditional 16 parole pursuant to INA section 236 (8 U.S.C. § 1226) after a determination that he was 17 neither a flight risk nor a danger to the community.

18 6. The Due Process clause of the Fifth Amendment, as well as statutory and 19 regulatory authorities, require the government to provide noncitizens with notice and a 20 hearing prior to re-detention. Here Petitioner's rights were violated and continue to be 21 each day he is detained.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

7. Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz is a young man from Peru. He and his family fled extortion and death threats from one of the most feared transnational criminal groups,

8. Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz arrived in the United States on September 18, 2022 and entered without inspection and without valid entry documents or a visa. Upon arrival, he flagged down border officials and informed them he had a fear to return to Peru.

9. After a brief detention, he was not referred to a credible fear interview and issued a Notice to Appear (NTA), and since Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz was determined to present neither a flight risk nor a danger to the community, he was released on his own recognizance with a humanitarian parole valid until November 18, 2022.

10. The NTA issued to Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz states that he is an “alien present in the United States who has not been admitted or paroled” under Section 212(a)(6)(A)(i).

11. On January 4, 2023, Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz was issued an Order of Release on Own Recognizance. The Order of Release on Own Recognizance states in pertinent part as follows: “In accordance with Section 236 of the Immigration and Nationality Act....you are being released on your own recognizance provided you comply with the following conditions....” (conditional parole pursuant to INA section 236 (8 U.S.C. § 1226)).

12. Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz not only complied with all conditions of his release on conditional parole documentation / ICE check-in requirements, he also (through counsel) filed his asylum application within the one-year deadline and attended all his court hearings until the family’s immigration court proceedings were administratively closed on April 4, 2024.

1 13. On February 5, 2025, Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz married a U.S. citizen and hired an 2 attorney to do the adjustment of status process with USCIS.

3 14. Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz' removal proceedings were re-calendared as of August 1, 2025
4 due to a motion by counsel for the Department of Homeland Security (pursuant to this 5 administration's policies).

6 15. On November 17, 2025, Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz and his wife were attending his 7 adjustment of status interview at USCIS when ICE arrested Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz.

8 16. Since his release on September 18, 2022 from ICE custody on his own
9 recognizance (conditional parole pursuant to INA section 236 (8 U.S.C. § 1226)), Mr.
10 Idrogo Bonifaz has no criminal record and there have been no other changed 11 circumstances from the time that he was initially apprehended and released justifying his 12 apprehension. In fact, he attended all his ICE check-ins and otherwise complied with the 13 requirements of his release, went to all his court hearings, got married to a U.S. citizen, 14 and is in the process of adjusting status to lawful permanent resident.

15 17. Petitioner's proceedings in immigration court are continuing.

16 18. Petitioner has now lived for over three years in the United States and has built 17 extensive community ties. He has had no encounters with the immigration system nor the 18 criminal justice system prior to his recent arrest and to date, he has never been convicted 19 of any crime.

21 CUSTODY

22 19. Petitioner is currently in Respondents' legal and physical custody. They are 23 detaining him at the at the Otay Mesa Detention Center in San Diego, California.

1 CoreCivic, Inc., a Maryland corporation, operates that facility. He is under Respondents'
2 and their agents' direct control. Prior to his arrest and re-detention Petitioner was not 3 provided with a constitutionally and statutorily compliant bond hearing.

4 JURISDICTION

5 20. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241; Art. I, § 9, cl. 2 of the United 6 States Constitution; and 28 U.S.C. § 1331, as Petitioner is presently in Respondents'
7 custody under the United States' color of authority, and such custody violates the United
8 States' Constitution, laws, or treaties. Its jurisdiction is not limited by a petitioner's
9 nationality, status as an immigrant, or any other classification. See Boumediene v. Bush,
10 553 U.S. 723, 747 (2008). This Court may grant relief under U.S. CONST. art. I, § 9, cl. 2;
11 U.S. CONST. amends. V and VIII; 28 U.S.C. §§ 1361 (mandamus), 1651 (All Writs Act), 12 2241 (habeas corpus).

14 21. Specifically, this Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 to review
15 Petitioner's re-detention without being provided an individualized bail hearing prior to 16 his re-detention and before a neutral adjudicator under § 1226(a), as well as Petitioner's 17 challenge to being subjected to mandatory detention under Section 1225(b)(2). Federal 18 district courts possess broad authority to issue writs of habeas corpus when a person is 19 held "in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States"
20 (28 U.S.C. § 2241(c)(3)), and this authority extends to immigration detention challenges
21 that survived the REAL ID Act's jurisdictional restrictions.

22. Because Petitioner seeks the traditional habeas remedy of release from allegedly unlawful detention rather than additional administrative review of his underlying claims, his petition presents precisely the type of threshold legality-of-detention question that § 2241 was designed to address. See INS v. St. Cyr, 533 U.S. 289, 301 (2001); see also Lopez-Marroquin v. Barr, 955 F.3d 759, 759 (9th Cir. 2020) (citing Singh, 638 F.3d at 1211-12)). And no court has ruled on the legality of Petitioner’s detention.

REQUIREMENTS OF 28 U.S.C. § 2243

23. The Court must grant the petition for writ of habeas corpus or issue an order to show cause (OSC) to Respondents “forthwith,” unless the petitioner is not entitled to relief. 28 U.S.C. § 2243. If an OSC is issued, the Court must require Respondents to file a return “within three days unless for good cause additional time, not exceeding twenty days, is allowed.” Id. (emphasis added).

24. Courts have long recognized the significance of the habeas statute in protecting individuals from unlawful detention. The Great Writ has been referred to as “perhaps the most important writ known to the constitutional law of England, affording as it does a swift and imperative remedy in all cases of illegal restraint or confinement.” Fay v. Noia, 372 U.S. 391, 400 (1963) (emphasis added).

25. Habeas corpus must remain a swift remedy. Importantly, “the statute itself directs courts to give petitions for habeas corpus ‘special, preferential consideration to insure expeditious hearing and determination.’” Yong v. INS, 208 F.3d 1116, 1120 (9th Cir. 2000) (internal citations omitted). The Ninth Circuit warned against any action creating

1 the perception “that courts are more concerned with efficient trial management than with 2 the vindication of constitutional rights.” Id.

3 VENUE

4 26. Venue is properly before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e) because the 5 Respondents are employees or officers of the United States, acting in their official
6 capacity; because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim
7 occur in San Diego County in the Southern District of California where Petitioner is 8 currently detained, and because there is no real property involved in this action.
9

10 INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

11 27. The decision to re-arrest and re-detain Petitioner was made by the San Diego field
12 office of ICE, and until he was unlawfully re-detained by ICE, his case was pending
13 before the San Diego Immigration Court. He was then transferred to Otay Mesa
14 Detention Center in San Diego, California and the venue for his proceedings was then 15 changed to the Otay Mesa Immigration Court .
16

17 EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

18 28. In habeas claims, exhaustion of administrative remedies is prudential, not 19 jurisdictional. Hernandez v. Sessions, 872 F.3d 976, 988 (9th Cir. 2017). A court may 20 waive the prudential exhaustion requirement if “administrative remedies are inadequate 21 or not efficacious, pursuit of administrative remedies would be a futile gesture, 22 irreparable injury will result, or the administrative proceedings would be void.” Id.
23 (quoting Laing v. Ashcroft, 370 F.3d 994, 1000 (9th Cir. 2004) (citation and quotation

1 marks omitted)). Petitioner asserts that exhaustion should be waived because 2 administrative remedies are (1) futile and (2) his continued detention results in irreparable 3 harm.

4 29. Pursuant to the Board's recent precedential decisions in Matter of Q. Li, 29 I&N
5 Dec. 66 (BIA 2025) and Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025), an 6 immigration judge would not take jurisdiction over any custody redetermination hearing.
7 Per those decisions, contravening decades of law and practice by Respondents, Petitioner 8 is erroneously deemed an applicant for admission ineligible for a bond hearing before an 9 immigration judge (IJ).
10

11 30. No statutory exhaustion requirements apply to Petitioner's claim of unlawful 12 custody in violation of his due process rights, and there are no administrative remedies
13 that he needs to exhaust. See Am.-Arab Anti-Discrimination Comm. v. Reno, 70 F.3d
14 1045, 1058 (9th Cir. 1995) (finding exhaustion to be a "futile exercise because the agency
15 does not have jurisdiction to review" constitutional claims); In re Indefinite Det. Cases, 16 82 F. Supp. 2d 1098, 1099 (C.D. Cal. 2000) (same).

18 31. Exhausting administrative remedies here is futile because Respondents contend
19 Petitioner is subject to mandatory detention. As such, no request to release Petitioner
20 from custody would be considered by ICE. Moreover, Immigration Judges in this district 21 claim to have no jurisdiction to conduct a custody redetermination hearing as to 22 individuals procedurally situated like Petitioner. Indeed, in contravention to the INA and 23 long-standing precedent and practice, the Board of Immigration Appeals and Attorney

1 General have deemed no noncitizen eligible for bond before an immigration judge (with 2 the exception of noncitizens who entered the U.S. on a visa). As such, any attempts to 3 exhaust administrative remedies would be entirely futile.

4 32. More importantly, every day that Petitioner remains detained causes him harm that 5 cannot be repaired. His continued detention puts his physical and mental health at greater 6 risk, further warranting a finding of irreparable harm and the waiver of the prudential
7 exhaustion requirement. The Court must consider this in its irreparable harm analysis of 8 the effects on Petitioner as her detention continues. See De Paz Sales v. Barr, No. 19-CV-
9 07221-KAW, 2020 WL 353465, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (noting that the 10 petitioner “continues to suffer significant psychological effects from his detention, 11 including anxiety caused by the threats of other inmates and two suicide attempts,” in 12 finding that petitioner would suffer irreparable harm warranting waiver of exhaustion 13 requirement).

14 33. Health concerns are one factor the Court should consider in its irreparable harm
15 analysis of the effects on Petitioner as his detention continues. See De Paz Sales v. Barr, 16 No. 19-CV-07221-KAW, 2020 WL 353465, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 21, 2020) (noting that 17 the petitioner “continues to suffer significant psychological effects from his detention, 18 including anxiety caused by the threats of other inmates and two suicide attempts,” in
19 finding that petitioner would suffer irreparable harm warranting waiver of exhaustion
20 requirement).

PARTIES

34. Petitioner Mercy Idrogo Bonifaz is a young Peruvian man who came to the U.S. on September 18, 2022. He entered the U.S. without inspection but flagged down a border official. Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz was detained for a day and released on September 19, 2025. Despite satisfying the conditions of his parole, filing his asylum application, getting married and applying for adjustment of status to lawful permanent resident, Mr. Idrogo Bonifaz was re-detained on November 17, 2025 while attending his adjustment of status interview at USCIS.

35. Petitioner is currently in Respondents' legal and physical custody at the Otay Mesa Detention Center in San Diego, California. CoreCivic, Inc., a Maryland corporation, operates that facility.

36. Respondent Joseph FREDEN is the Acting Field Office Director of ICE in San Diego, California and is named in his official capacity. ICE is the component of DHS that is responsible for detaining and removing noncitizens according to immigration law and oversees custody determinations. In his official capacity, he is the legal custodian of Petitioner.

37. Respondent Todd M. LYONS is the Acting Director of ICE and is named in his official capacity. Among other things, ICE is responsible for the administration and enforcement of the immigration laws, including the removal of noncitizens. In his official capacity as head of ICE, he is the legal custodian of Petitioner.

38. Respondent Sirce OWEN is the Acting Director of EOIR and has ultimate responsibility for overseeing the operation of the immigration courts and the Board of

1 Immigration Appeals, including bond hearings. Executive Office for Immigration Review
2 (EOIR) is the federal agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the INA in 3 removal proceedings, including for custody redeterminations in bond hearings. She is 4 sued in her official capacity.

5 39. Respondent Kriti NOEM is the Secretary of the DHS and is named in her official 6 capacity. DHS is the federal agency encompassing ICE, which is responsible for the 7 administration and enforcement of the INA and all other laws relating to the immigration
8 of noncitizens. In her capacity as Secretary, Respondent Noem has responsibility for the 9 administration and enforcement of the immigration and naturalization laws pursuant to 10 section 402 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002, 107 Pub. L. No. 296, 116 Stat. 2135
11 (Nov. 25, 2002); see also 8 U.S.C. § 1103(a). Respondent Noem is the ultimate legal 12 custodian of Petitioner.

13 40. Respondent Pam BONDI is the Attorney General of the United States and the most 14 senior official in the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and is named in her official
15 capacity. She has the authority to interpret the immigration laws and adjudicate removal 16 cases. The Attorney General delegates this responsibility to the Executive Office for 17 Immigration Review (EOIR), which administers the immigration courts and the BIA.

18 41. Respondent Christopher LAROSE is the Warden of the Otay Mesa Detention
19 Center where Petitioner is being held. Respondent Christopher LaRose oversees the day-
20 to-day operations of the Otay Mesa Detention Center and acts at the Direction of 21 Respondents Freden, Lyons and Noem. Respondent Christopher LaRose is a custodian of 22 Petitioner and is named in their official capacity.
23

LEGAL FRAMEWORK AND ANALYSIS

Statutory Framework Regarding Re-Detention

42. The Due Process clause of the Constitution, Congress's statutes and implementing regulations as well as precedential decisions narrow DHS's authority to unilaterally revoke any noncitizen's immigration bond or conditional parole and re-arrest the noncitizen at any time, 8 U.S.C. § 1226(b); 8 C.F.R. § 236.1(c)(9).

43. ICE can release a noncitizen from custody after the noncitizen "demonstrate[s] to the satisfaction of the officer that such release would not pose a danger to property or persons" and that the noncitizen is "likely to appear for any future proceeding." § 1236.1(c)(8).3 "Release [therefore] reflects a determination by the government that the noncitizen is not a danger to the community or a flight risk." Saravia v. Sessions, 280 F. Supp. 3d 1168, 1176 (N.D. Cal. 2017), aff'd sub nom. Saravia for A.H. v. Sessions, 905 F.3d 1137 (9th Cir. 2018).

44. Petitioner was released from ICE custody on September 18, 2022 on conditional parole pursuant to INA section 236 (8 U.S.C. § 1226) after determining he was neither a flight risk nor a danger to the community.

45. Respondents now purport to hold Petitioner under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) since November 17, 2025, despite lacking authority to hold him under § 1225(b)(2), and without giving him an individualized bail hearing before a neutral adjudicator under § 1226(a). That violates Petitioner's rights under the INA, the APA and the Fifth Amendment's Due Process Clause.

1 46. Petitioner was arrested and is detained despite the fact that Respondents failing to 2 provide him notice and a pre-deprivation hearing before a neutral arbiter demonstrating 3 materially changed circumstances justifying his re-detention, and despite the fact that he 4 is not an applicant for admission seeking admission to the United States as required by 5 Section 1225(b)(2). Instead, Petitioner has been residing in the U.S. for over three years
6 and as such is subject to Section 1226(a).

7
8 Materially Changed Circumstances – Right to a Hearing Prior to Re-incarceration.

9 47. The Board of Immigration Appeals has clearly identified limits to DHS's authority 10 to re-detain noncitizens: "where a previous bond determination has been made by an 11 immigration judge, no change should be made by [the DHS] absent a change of 12 circumstance," a position adopted by the Ninth Circuit. Matter of Sugay, 17 I. & N. Dec.
13 637, 640 (BIA 1981); see also Panosyan v. Mayorkas, 854 F. App'x 787, 788 (9th Cir.
14 2021) ("Thus, absent changed circumstances ... ICE cannot re-detain Panosyan.").

16 48. The government has further clarified in litigation that the showing of changed 17 circumstances applies "both where the prior bond determination was made by an 18 immigration judge and where the previous release decision was made by a DHS officer."
19 Saravia v. Barr, 280 F. Supp. 3d at 1197 (emphasis added).

20 49. Further, DHS has in practice limited its authority and "generally only re-arrests 21 [noncitizens] pursuant to § 1226(b) after a material change in circumstances," not just 22

1 any changed circumstances. Id. (quoting Defs.’ Second Supp. Br. at 1, Dkt. No. 90)
2 (emphasis added).

3 50.Guidance from Matter of Sugay and DHS practice alone —that ICE should not re-
4 arrest a noncitizen absent changed circumstances— are insufficient to protect Petitioner’s
5 weighty interest in his freedom from detention. Federal district courts in California have
6 repeatedly recognized that the demands of due process and the limitations on DHS’s
7 authority to revoke a noncitizen’s bond or parole require a pre-deprivation hearing for a
8 noncitizen on bond, like Petitioner, before ICE re-detains him, to comport with the Due 9 Process clause of the Constitution. See, e.g., Meza v. Bonnar, 2018 WL 2554572 (N.D.
10 Cal. June 4, 2018); Ortega v. Bonnar, 415 F. Supp. 3d 963 (N.D. Cal. 2019); Vargas v.
11 Jennings, No. 20-CV-5785-PJH, 2020 WL 5074312, at *3 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 23, 2020);
12 Jorge M. F. v. Wilkinson, No. 21-CV-01434-JST, 2021 WL 783561, at *2 (N.D. Cal.
13 Mar. 1, 2021)

14
15 51.Just in the last few months, several federal courts in California have agreed that 16 immigration re-detention after being released in the community warrants a hearing. See
17 Diaz v. Kaiser, No. 3:25-CV-05071, 2025 WL 1676854 (N.D. Cal. June 14, 2025); Singh
18 v. Andrews, No. 1:25-CV-00801, 2025 WL 1918679 (E.D. Cal. July 11, 2025); Pinchi v.
19 Noem, — F. Supp. 3d —, —, No. 5:25-cv-05632-PCP, 2025 WL 2084921 (N.D.
20 Cal. July 24, 2025); Victor Amado Rodriguez-Flores v. F. Semaia et al., No. CV 25-6900
21 JGB (JCX), 2025 WL 2684181 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 14, 2025).
22

1 52. It follows that prior to re-detaining Petitioner who had previously been released
2 pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(b), DHS should have provided him with a pre-detention
3 hearing and notice of such hearing at which DHS had the burden of proving that 4 Petitioner's conditional parole should be canceled.

5 53. Instead, Respondents unlawfully re-arrested and re-detained Petitioner without 6 having an immigration judge or a neutral adjudicator assess whether circumstances have 7 materially changed since his release on September 18, 2022 by DHS on conditional
8 parole pursuant to INA section 236 (8 U.S.C. § 1226).

9
10 Petitioner's due process rights

11 54. The government cannot deprive any person of "life, liberty, or property, without 12 due process of law[.]" U.S. Const. Amend. V. Due process extends to "all 'persons'
13 within the United States, including [non-citizens], whether their presence here is lawful,
14 unlawful, temporary, or permanent." Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 693 (2001).

15 A. Petitioner's Liberty Interest is protected

16 55. "Freedom from imprisonment—from government custody, detention, or other
17 forms of physical restraint—lies at the heart of the liberty that [the Due Process] Clause
18 protects." Zadvydas, 533 U.S. at 690.

19
20 56. A continued liberty interest also exists where an individual was detained and is 21 subsequently released, even if conditionally released and even when an initial decision to 22 detain or release the individual is discretionary. Morrissey v. Brewer, 408 U.S. 471, 481-
23 82 (1972). "[S]ubject to the conditions of his parole, [a parolee] can be gainfully

1 employed and is free to be with family and friends and to form the other enduring
2 attachments of normal life.” Id. at 482. The parolee relies “on at least an implicit promise
3 that parole will be revoked only if he fails to live up to the parole conditions.” Id. The 4 Court explained that “the liberty of a parolee, although indeterminate, includes many of 5 the core values of unqualified liberty and its termination inflicts a grievous loss on the 6 parolee and often others.” Id. In turn, “[b]y whatever name, the liberty is valuable and 7 must be seen within the protection of the [Fifth] Amendment.” Morrissey, 408 U.S. at 8 482; see also Young v. Harper, 520 U.S. 143, 152 (1997) (holding that individuals placed 9 in a pre-parole program created to reduce prison overcrowding have a protected liberty
10 interest requiring pre-deprivation process); Gagnon v. Scarpelli, 411 U.S. 778, 781-82 11 (1973) (holding that individuals released on felony probation have a protected liberty 12 interest requiring pre-deprivation process).

14 57. As the First Circuit has explained, when analyzing the issue of whether a specific 15 conditional release rises to the level of a protected liberty interest, “[c]ourts have resolved 16 the issue by comparing the specific conditional release in the case before them with the 17 liberty interest in parole as characterized by Morrissey.” Gonzalez-Fuentes v. Molina, 18 607 F.3d 864, 887 (1st Cir. 2010) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). See
19 also, e.g., Hurd v. District of Columbia, 864 F.3d 671, 683 (D.C. Cir. 2017) (“a person
20 who is in fact free of physical confinement—even if that freedom is lawfully revocable—
21 has a liberty interest that entitles him to constitutional due process before he is re-
22

1 incarcerated”) (citing Young, 520 U.S. at 152, Gagnon, 411 U.S. at 782, and Morrissey,
2 408 U.S. at 482).

3 58. The protectable liberty interest created by conditional parole also applies to 4 immigration detention. “[T]he government’s discretion to incarcerate non-citizens is 5 always constrained by the requirements of due process.” Hernandez v. Sessions, 872 F.3d
6 976, 981 (9th Cir. 2017). “Just as people on preparole, parole, and probation status have a
7 liberty interest, so too does [a noncitizen released from immigration detention] have a
8 liberty interest in remaining out of custody on bond.” Ortega v. Bonnar, 415 F. Supp.
9 3d 963, 969 (N.D. Cal. 2019). Even where “a decision-making process involves 10 discretion does not prevent an individual from having a protectable liberty interest.” Id. at 11 970 (N.D. Cal. 2019); Romero v. Kaiser, No. 22-cv-02508, 2022 WL 1443250, at *2
12 (N.D. Cal. May 6, 2022).

14 59. The protected liberty interest is even more substantial when balancing the 15 nonpunitive purpose of immigration detention against the “irreparable harms imposed on 16 anyone subject to immigration detention,” including “subpar medical and psychiatric care
17 in ICE detention facilities, the economic burdens imposed on detainees and their families
18 as a result of detention, and the collateral harms to children of detainees whose parents
19 are detained.” Hernandez v. Sessions, 872 F.3d 976, 995 (9th Cir. 2017).

21 60. “[R]elease from ICE custody constitute[s] an ‘implied promise’ that [the 22 noncitizen’s] liberty would not be revoked unless she ‘fail[s] to live up to the conditions
23 of her release.’ The regulatory framework makes clear that those conditions [a]re that [the

1 noncitizen] remain[s] neither a danger to the community nor a flight risk. Pinchi v. Noem,
2 — F. Supp. 3d —, —, No. 5:25-cv-05632-PCP, 2025 WL 2084921, at *8 (N.D.
3 Cal. July 24, 2025) (citing Morrissey, 408 U.S. at 482).

4 61. A noncitizen released from custody pending removal proceedings therefore has a
5 protected liberty interest in remaining out of custody. See Diaz v. Kaiser, No. 3:25-CV-
6 05071, 2025 WL 1676854 (N.D. Cal. June 14, 2025); Romero v. Kaiser, No. 22-cv-
7 02508, 2022 WL 1443250, at *2 (N.D. Cal. May 6, 2022); see also Ramirez Clavijo v.
8 Kaiser, 25-cv-06248-BLF, at 6 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 21, 2025) (gathering cases).

9 62. Petitioner has a substantial liberty interest in not being detained. He has been living
10 in the United States for over three years, has been working and supporting himself and 11 his family, and has developed extensive community ties.

12
13 B. Petitioner’s Liberty Interest Mandated a Hearing Before any Re-Arrest and 14 Revocation of Parole

15 63. “Adequate, or due, process depends upon the nature of the interest affected. The 16 more important the interest and the greater the effect of its impairment, the greater the 17 procedural safeguards the [government] must provide to satisfy due process.” Haygood v.
18 Younger, 769 F.2d 1350, 1355-56 (9th Cir. 1985) (en banc) (citing Morrissey, 408 U.S. at 19 481-82). This Court must “balance [Petitioner’s] liberty interest against the 20 [government’s] interest in the efficient administration of” its immigration laws in order to 21 determine what process he is owed to ensure that ICE does not unconstitutionally deprive 22 him of his liberty. Id. at 1357.
23

1 64. The three-factor Mathews test (adopted by the Court of Appeals for the Ninth
2 Circuit, see Rodriguez Diaz v. Garland, 53 F.4th 1189, 1206–07 (9th Cir. 2022)), helps
3 the Court assess adequate safeguards: “[F]irst, the private interest that will be affected by 4 the official action; second, the risk of an erroneous deprivation of such interest through 5 the procedures used, and the probative value, if any, of additional or substitute procedural 6 safeguards; and finally the government’s interest, including the function involved and the 7 fiscal and administrative burdens that the additional or substitute procedural requirements
8 would entail.” Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 335 (1976).

9
10 65. The Due Process Clause typically requires a hearing of some sort before the 11 government may deprive a person of liberty. Zinermon v. Burch, 494 U.S. 113, 127
12 (1990) (see also United States v. Raya-Vaca, 771 F.3d 1195, 1204 (9th Cir. 2014) (“Due 13 process always requires, at a minimum, notice and an opportunity to respond.”). Post-
14 deprivation remedies may satisfy the requirements of due process only in a “special case”
15 where they are “the only remedies the State could be expected to provide” and where 16 “one of the variables in the Mathews equation—the value of post deprivation 17 safeguards—is negligible in preventing the kind of deprivation at issue” such that “the 18 State cannot be required constitutionally to do the impossible by providing post
19 deprivation process.” Zinermon, 494 U.S. at 985.
20

21 1. Petitioner has a substantial liberty interest in staying out of detention

22 66. An individual’s interest in not being detained is “the most elemental of liberty
23 interests[.]” Hamdi v. Rumsfeld, 542 U.S. 507, 529, 124 S.Ct. 2633, 159 L.Ed.2d 578

(2004). “Freedom from bodily restraint has always been at the core of the liberty protected by the Due Process Clause.” Foucha v. Louisiana, 504 U.S. 71, 80 (1992). This liberty interest also exists where ICE decides to unilaterally nullify its own prior parole decision and take away his physical freedom, i.e., his “constitutionally protected interest in avoiding physical restraint.” Singh v. Holder, 638 F.3d 1196, 1203 (9th Cir. 2011) (internal quotation omitted). Courts have routinely agreed that “a petitioner’s interest in remaining out of custody as ‘substantial.’” Rodriguez-Flores v. Semaia, No. 2:25-CV-06900, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 14, 2025) (citing Diaz v. Kaiser, No. 3:25-CV-05071, 2025 WL 1676854 (N.D. Cal. June 14, 2025)). The longer the individual has been released, the more important his liberty interest grows. Morrissey v. Brewer, 408 U.S. 471, 482 (1972).

2. There is a risk of erroneous deprivation that the additional procedural safeguard of a pre-detention hearing would help protect against.

67. Even if the Government believes “it has a valid reason” to re-detain noncitizens, it “does not eliminate its obligation to effectuate the detention in a manner that comports with due process.” Guillermo M.R. v. Kaiser, — F. Supp. 3d —, —, No. 25-cv-05436-RFL, 2025 WL 1983677, at *7 (N.D. Cal. July 17, 2025) (finding “undeniably stark” risk of erroneous deprivation where the Government contends that “notwithstanding a neutral arbiter’s determination that Petitioner should be released, ICE is entitled to unilaterally terminate the IJ’s order by re-detaining Petitioner without a hearing for at least six months, based on ICE’s own determination in its sole discretion

1 that additional conditions of release unilaterally set by ICE had been violated”); see also
2 Singh v. Andrews, No. 1:25-CV-00801, 2025 WL 1918679 (E.D. Cal. July 11, 2025).

3 68. Where the petitioner “has not received any bond or custody ... hearing, the risk of 4 an erroneous deprivation [of liberty] is high because neither the government nor 5 [Petitioner] has had an opportunity to determine whether there is any valid basis for her
6 detention.” Pinchi v. Noem, — F. Supp. 3d —, —, No. 5:25-cv-05632-PCP, 2025
7 WL 2084921, at *8 (N.D. Cal. July 24, 2025) (citation omitted). A pre-detention hearing
8 significantly decreases that risk because the government has to prove to a neutral
9 adjudicator by clear and convincing evidence that circumstances have materially changed
10 to justify re-detention, and a hearing is likelier to produce accurate determinations 11 regarding factual disputes, such as whether a certain occurrence constitutes a “changed
12 circumstance.” See Chalkboard, Inc. v. Brandt, 902 F.2d 1375, 1381 (9th Cir.1989) 13 (when “delicate judgments depending on credibility of witnesses and assessment of 14 conditions not subject to measurement” are at issue, the “risk of error is considerable 15 when just determinations are made after hearing only one side”).
16

17 69. Further, the risk of an erroneous deprivation of liberty under Mathews can be 18 decreased where a neutral decisionmaker, rather than ICE alone, makes custody
19 determinations. Diouf v. Napolitano (“Diouf II”), 634 F.3d 1081, 1091-92 (9th Cir.
20 2011); see also Castro-Cortez v. INS, 239 F.3d 1037, 1049 (9th Cir. 2001), abrogated on 21 other grounds by Fernandez-Vargas v. Gonzales, 548 U.S. 30 (2006) (“A neutral judge 22 is one of the most basic due process protections.”)
23

1 70. Any argument that noncitizens can request a custody determination hearing once
2 re-detained goes against the due process safeguards envisioned in the Constitution,
3 because such hearing happens after the fact and cannot prevent an erroneous deprivation
4 of liberty. Domingo v. Kaiser, No. 25-cv-05893 (RFL), 2025 WL 1940179, at *3 (N.D.
5 Cal. July 14, 2025) (“Even if Petitioner-Plaintiff received a prompt post-detention bond
6 hearing under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) and was released at that point, he will have already 7 suffered the harm that is the subject of his motion: that is, his potentially erroneous
8 detention.”). Further, custody determination hearings are routinely conducted in 9 immigration court and this is not a “special case” that warrants post-deprivation remedies
10 because other remedies are impractical the way it was in Zinerman.
11

12 71. Consequently ICE was required to provide Petitioner with notice and a hearing
13 prior to any re-incarceration and revocation of his conditional parole. See Morrissey, 408
14 U.S. at 481-82; Haygood, 769 F.2d at 1355-56; Jones, 393 F.3d at 932; Zinerman, 494
15 U.S. at 985; see also Youngberg v. Romeo, 457 U.S. 307, 321-24 (1982); Lynch v. Baxley, 16 744 F.2d 1452 (11th Cir. 1984) (holding that individuals awaiting involuntary civil 17 commitment proceedings may not constitutionally be held in jail pending the 18 determination as to whether they can ultimately be recommitted). Under Mathews, “the 19 balance weighs heavily in favor of [Petitioner’s] liberty” and required a pre-deprivation 20 hearing before a neutral adjudicator, which ICE failed to provide.
21

22 72. Further, immigration detention is civil (as opposed to criminal), and its primary 23 purpose is to ensure a noncitizen’s appearance during removal proceedings and protect

1 against danger to the community; it cannot be punitive. Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678,
2 690, 697 (2001). Due process thus also requires consideration of alternatives to detention 3 at any custody redetermination hearing that may occur, and where alternatives to 4 detention that could mitigate risk of flight exist, detention is not warranted. See Bell v.
5 Wolfish, 441 U.S. 520, 538 (1979). In fact here Petitioner was released on a $1,500.00
6 Immigration Judge bond and has since then complied with the conditions of his release.

7
8 3. The government’s interest in detaining Petitioner is minimal, and in fact the 9 procedural requirements of a hearing would promote judicial and 10 administrative efficiency given the government’s limited resources

11 73. The efficient allocation of the government’s limited fiscal resources further 12 supports holding a hearing prior to re-detaining noncitizens. The “fiscal and 13 administrative burdens” as a result of the due process safeguard are nonexistent. See
14 Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 334-35 (1976). Indeed, the Ninth Circuit has long
15 recognized that “[t]he costs to the public of immigration detention are ‘staggering,’” 16 Hernandez v. Sessions, 872 F.3d 976, 996 (9th Cir. 2017); Diaz, 2025 WL 1676854, at 17 *3. In 2017 – with inflation numbers are likely higher today – immigration detention cost
18 “$158 each day per detainee, amounting to a total daily cost of $6.5 million.” Hernandez,
19 872 F.3d at 996. On the other hand, “[i]n immigration court, custody hearings are routine
20 and impose a minimal cost.” Pinchi v. Noem, — F. Supp. 3d —, —, No. 5:25-cv-21 05632-PCP, 2025 WL 2084921, at *10 (N.D. Cal. July 24, 2025) (citing Singh v.
22 Andrews, No. 1:25-CV-00801, 2025 WL 1918679, at *8 (E.D. Cal. July 11, 2025)). The 23 cost of re-detaining an immigrant who was previously released “pending any bond

1 hearing would significantly exceed the cost of providing [the immigrant] with a pre-
2 detention hearing.” Pinchi, 2025 WL 2084921, at *10.

3 74.ICE’s new policy to make a minimum number of arrests each day under the new 4 administration¹ does not constitute a material change in circumstances and cannot stand
5 to replace regulations enacted by Congress that allow the release of noncitizens in the 6 first place. It is “arbitrary, capricious [and] an abuse of discretion” “in excess of statutory 7 jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right.” 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A)-
8 (C). Even if the government “ultimately demonstrates to a neutral decisionmaker by clear 9 and convincing evidence that her detention is necessary to prevent danger to the 10 community or flight,” then the only potential injury the government faces is a short delay
11 in detaining” Petitioner. Pinchi, 2025 WL 2084921, at *12. “Faced with ... a conflict 12 between minimally costly procedures and preventable human suffering, [the Court has]
13 little difficulty concluding that the balance of hardships tips decidedly in plaintiff[’s]
14 favor.” (internal citations omitted). Id.

15
16 75.Consequently the government’s interest in keeping Petitioner in detention without 17 a due process hearing is outweighed by Petitioner’s significant private interest in his 18 liberty. The scale tips sharply in favor of releasing Petitioner from custody unless and 19 until the government demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that he is a flight
20 risk or danger to the community. It becomes abundantly clear that the Mathews test
21
22

23 ¹ See “Trump officials issue quotas to ICE officers to ramp up arrests,” Washington Post (January 26, 2025), available at: <https://www.washingtonpost.com/immigration/2025/01/26/ice-arrests-raids-trump-quota/>.

1 favors Petitioner when the Court considers that the process Petitioner seeks—release
2 from custody pending notice and a hearing regarding whether his conditional parole
3 should be revoked and, if so, whether a new bond amount should be set—is a standard
4 course of action for the government. In the alternative, providing Petitioner with a
5 hearing before this Court (or a neutral decisionmaker) to determine whether there is clear
6 and convincing evidence that Petitioner is a flight risk or danger to the community would 7 impose only a de minimis burden on the government, because the government routinely
8 provides this sort of hearing to detained individuals like Petitioner.
9

10 Statutory Framework Regarding Detention – Section 1225 and Section 1226

11 76.The Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) prescribes three basic forms of 12 detention for noncitizens in removal proceedings.

13 77.First, 8 U.S.C. § 1226 authorizes the detention of noncitizens in standard non-
14 expedited removal proceedings before an immigration judge (IJ). See 8 U.S.C. § 1229a.
15 Individuals in § 1226(a) detention are entitled to a bond hearing at the outset of their 16 detention, see 8 C.F.R. §§ 1003.19(a), 1236.1(d), while noncitizens who have been 17 arrested, charged with, or convicted of certain crimes are subject to mandatory detention,
18 see 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c).
19

20 78.Second, the INA provides for mandatory detention of noncitizens subject to 21 expedited removal under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1) and for other recent arrivals seeking 22 admission referred to under § 1225(b)(2).
23

1 79.Last, the Act also provides for detention of noncitizens who have been previously
2 ordered removed, including individuals in withholding-only proceedings, see 8 U.S.C.
3 § 1231(a)–(b).

4 80.This case concerns the detention provisions at §§ 1226(a) and 1225(b)(2).

5 81.The detention provisions at § 1226(a) and § 1225(b)(2) were enacted as part of the 6 Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act (IIRIRA) of 1996, Pub. L.
7 No. 104–208, Div. C, §§ 302–03, 110 Stat. 3009–546, 3009–582 to 3009–583, 3009–
8 585. Section 1226(a) was most recently amended earlier this year by the Laken Riley Act, 9 Pub. L. No.119-1, 139 Stat. 3 (2025).

10 82.Following enactment of the IIRIRA, EOIR drafted new regulations explaining that,
11 in general, people who entered the country without inspection were not considered
12 detained under § 1225 and that they were instead detained under § 1226(a). See 13 Inspection and Expedited Removal of Aliens; Detention and Removal of Aliens; Conduct 14 of Removal Proceedings; Asylum Procedures, 62 Fed. Reg. 10312, 10323 (Mar. 6, 1997).
15

16 83.Thus, in the decades that followed, most people who entered without inspection—
17 unless they were subject to some other detention authority—received bond hearings. That 18 practice was consistent with many more decades of prior practice, in which noncitizens
19 who were not deemed “arriving” were entitled to a custody hearing before an IJ or other 20 hearing officer. See 8 U.S.C. § 1252(a) (1994); see also H.R. Rep. No. 104-469, pt. 1, at 21 229 (1996) (noting that § 1226(a) simply “restates” the detention authority previously 22 found at § 1252(a)).
23

1 84. On May 15, 2025, the Board issued Matter of Q Li, 29 I&N Dec. 66 (BIA 2025)
2 stating that an applicant for admission who is arrested and detained without a warrant
3 while arriving in the United States, whether or not at a port of entry, and subsequently 4 placed in removal proceedings is detained under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b), and is ineligible for 5 any subsequent release on bond under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a).

6 85. On September 5, 2025, the Board of Immigration Appeals issued a precedent
7 decision in Matter of YAJURE HURTADO, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025), finding that 8 noncitizens who entered the United States without inspection were ineligible for bond
9 redetermination hearings because they were seeking admission, and fell within 8 U.S.C. §
10 1225(b)(2)(A).

11 86. This legal theory espoused by the BIA's decisions in Matter of Q Li and Matter of 12 Yajure Hurtado that noncitizens who entered the United States without admission or 13 parole are ineligible for bond hearings has been universally rejected by the district courts.

7
8 87. The Board's interpretation defies the INA. The plain text of the statutory 9 provisions demonstrates that § 1226(a), not § 1225(b), applies to people like Petitioner.

10 88. Section 1226(a) applies by default to all persons "pending a decision on whether 11 the [noncitizen] is to be removed from the United States." These removal hearings are 12 held under § 1229a, which "decid[e] the inadmissibility or deportability of a[] 13 [noncitizen]."

14 89. The text of § 1226 also explicitly applies to people charged as being inadmissible, 15 including those who entered without inspection. See 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c)(1)(E).
16 Subparagraph (E)'s reference to such people makes clear that, by default, such people are 17 afforded a bond hearing under subsection (a). Section 1226 therefore leaves no doubt that 18 it applies to people who face charges of being inadmissible to the United States, 19 including those who are present without admission or parole.

20
21 90. By contrast, § 1225(b) applies to people arriving at U.S. ports of entry or who 22 recently entered the United States. The statute's entire framework is premised on 23

1 inspections at the border of people who are “seeking admission” to the United States. 8
2 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A).

3 91. In Torres v. Barr, 976 F.3d 918, 926 (9th Cir. 2020), the en banc Court held that 4 “the phrase ‘at the time of application for admission’ ... refers to the particular point in 5 time when a noncitizen submits an application to physically enter into the United States.”
6 976 F.3d at 924. The Ninth Circuit held that “inadmissibility must be measured at the 7 point in time that an immigrant actually submits an application for entry into the United 8 States.” Torres v. Barr, 976 F.3d at 923. Under section 212(a)(7), a noncitizen only 9 makes an application for admission when they seek permission to physically enter the 10 United States. Id. at 924.

12 92. In short, Torres clarified there is a temporal limitation to a classification of 13 applicant for admission. See United States v. Gambino-Ruiz, 91 F.4th 981, 989 (9th Cir.
14 2024) (stating that “Torres merely rejected the view that an alien remains in a perpetual 15 state of applying for admission”).

16 93. Accordingly, the mandatory detention provision of § 1225(b)(2) does not apply to 17 people like Petitioner who are alleged to have entered the United States without 18 admission or parole.

20 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

21 Statutory Violation – Petitioner’s Detention is in Violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)-(b)

22 94. Petitioner re-alleges and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth herein, the 23 allegations in the paragraphs above.

1 95. Respondents lack statutory authority to detain Petitioner under 8 U.S.C.
2 § 1225(b)(2), because that statute requires that the individual be an applicant for 3 admission and seeking admission to the U.S.

4 96. As Petitioner does not meet these criteria, his detention must be governed by 8
5 U.S.C. § 1226(a) which provides discretionary detention authority and requires ICE to 6 make an individualized custody determination.

7 97. Under § 1226(a), individuals may be detained as a matter of discretion, released on 8 their own recognizance, or released on bond of at least $1,500.

9 98. Respondents' failure to apply the correct statutory framework violates the INA and 10 exceeds the government's detention authority.

11 99. Thus, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court order his release from 12 detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), INA § 236(a), for the duration of his removal
13 proceedings under 8 U.S.C. § 1229a, INA § 240. Alternatively, he requests that this Court 14 order a constitutionally adequate bond hearing complying with the procedural 15 requirements in Singh.
16

17 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

18 Due Process
19 U.S. Const. amend. V

20 100. Petitioner incorporates by reference the allegations of fact set forth in the 21 preceding paragraphs.

22 101. Petitioner's continued detention without any bond hearing violates his right
23 to due process under the Fifth Amendment.

1 102. The Government may not deprive a person of life, liberty, or property
2 without due process of law. U.S. Const. amend. V. “Freedom from imprisonment— from 3 government custody, detention, or other forms of physical restraint—lies at the heart of 4 the liberty that the Clause protects.” Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 690 (2001).

5 103. Petitioner has a vested liberty interest in his conditional release. Due Process
6 does not permit the government to strip him of that liberty without a hearing before this 7 Court. See Morrissey v. Brewer, 408 U.S. 471, 487-88 (1972).

8 104. Petitioner’s re-arrest without a hearing violated the Constitution both 9 substantively, because Respondents have no valid interest in detaining him since 10 circumstances have not changed, and procedurally, because he was not provided with a 11 pre-detention hearing.
12

13 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

14 Petitioner’s Detention Violates the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)
15 Unlawful Denial of Bond

16 105. Petitioner repeats re-alleges and incorporate by reference each and every 17 allegation in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

18 106. Under the Administrative Procedures Act (“APA”), an agency must act in a 19 manner that is not arbitrary or capricious. See 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A) (directing courts to 20 “hold unlawful and set aside agency action” that is arbitrary and capricious); Dep’t of 21 Com. v. New York, 139 S. Ct. 2551, 2569 (2019) (requiring an agency to articulate a 22 “satisfactory explanation” for its action, “including a rational connection between the 23 facts found and the choice made”).

107. A court must “hold unlawful and set aside agency action” that is “arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with the law,” that is “contrary to constitutional right [or] power,” or that is “in excess of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right.” 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A)-(C).

108. The mandatory detention provision at 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) does not apply to noncitizens residing in the United States who are subject to the grounds of inadmissibility because they originally entered the United States without inspection or parole. Such noncitizens are detained under § 1226(a), unless they are subject to another detention provision, such as § 1225(b)(1), § 1226(c) or § 1231.

109. The application of § 1225(b)(2) to bar Petitioner from receiving a bond redetermination hearing before an immigration judge is arbitrary, capricious, and not in accordance with law, and as such, it violates the APA. See 5 U.S.C. § 706(2).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner prays that this Court grant the following relief:

- (1) Assume jurisdiction over this matter;
- (2) Issue the writ of habeas corpus and order Respondents to show cause, within three days of Petitioner’s filing this petition, why the relief he seeks should not be granted; and set a hearing on this matter within five days of Respondents’ return on the order to show cause (see 28 U.S.C. § 2243);
- (3) Enjoin Respondents from transferring Petitioner outside the jurisdiction

- 1 of the Southern District of California pending the resolution of this case;
- 2 (4) Issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus requiring Respondents to release
- 3 Petitioner on the conditions of his prior conditional parole;
- 4 (5) Alternatively conduct an immediate bond hearing before this Court
- 5 where DHS bears the burden of justifying Petitioner's continued
- 6 detention by clear and convincing evidence and the Court takes into
- 7 consideration alternatives to detention and Petitioner's ability to pay a
- 8 bond;
- 9 (6) Alternatively, order an immediate bond hearing before a neutral
- 10 decisionmaker where DHS bears the burden of justifying Petitioner's
- 11 continued detention by clear and convincing evidence and where
- 12 alternatives to detention and Petitioner's ability to pay a bond are
- 13 considered;
- 14 (7) Award reasonable costs and attorney fees under the Equal Access to
- 15 Justice Act ("EAJA"), as amended, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, and on any other
- 16 basis justified under law;
- 17 (8) Grant such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

VERIFICATION PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. 2242

I am submitting this verification on behalf of the Petitioner because I am one of Petitioner's attorneys. I have discussed with the Petitioner the events described in the Petition and reviewed Petitioner's immigration file. Based on said review and those discussions, I hereby verify that the factual statements made in the attached Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Executed on this November 19, 2025, in San Diego, California.
