Case No: 5:26-cv-211

Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241

INTRODUCTION

Petitioner Herlinda Gomez-Lopez is a noncitizen from Guatemala who was unlawfully detained by Respondents on November 13, 2025. Respondents detained her without due process or warrant. Without intervention by this Court, Petitioner will be subject to indefinite detention. She has been deemed ineligible for bond under recent precedent of the Board of Immigration Appeals. There is no other avenue for Petitioner to be released from her unlawful detention. For these reasons, she prays that this Court will grant her release.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Violation of Fifth Amendment Right to Due Process

18. The above paragraphs are realleged and incorporated herein.

19. Petitioner's detention violated the Immigration and Nationality Act and her due process rights because she was detained without "a warrant issued by the Attorney General" as required by Section 236(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

20. Having been unlawfully detained, Petitioner requests the only appropriate relief from this Court: "release from unlawful detention". Dep't of Homeland Sec. v. Thuraissigiam, 591 U.S. 103, 107 (2020).

21. There is no other avenue for release that Petitioner can seek. Respondents have determined that all individuals like Petitioner are ineligible for bond and must be detained. The Executive Office for Immigration Review has issued precedential decisions holding that immigration judges unequivocally have no jurisdiction to entertain granting bond in Petitioner's exact circumstances. See, e.g., Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).

22. Petitioner's warrantless arrest and continued detention are violations of her rights under the Fifth Amendment of the US Constitution.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Petitioner respectfully asks that the Court:

A. Assume jurisdiction over this matter;

B. Issue an Order to Show Cause ordering Respondents to show cause why this Petition should not be granted within three days;

C. Order that that Respondents not transfer Petitioner from this District of the Western District of Texas during the pendency of this matter;

D. Order that Respondents not remove Petitioner from the United States until this matter has concluded;

E. Order that Respondents immediately release Petitioner from detention under the same conditions of release that she had prior to her unlawful detention;

F. Order that Respondents return all personal property that was confiscated from Petitioner at the time of the unlawful detention; and

G. Grant any further relief this Court deems just and proper.
