Case No: 1:26-cv-157

Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus
Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241

INTRODUCTION

Petitioner Abel Antonio Fuentes-Zuniga is an asylum seeker from Honduras who was unlawfully detained by Respondents on January 8, 2026. Respondents detained him without due process or warrant. His detention violates the Immigration and Nationality Act as well as his Fifth Amendment Due Process rights. See 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a). Without intervention by this Court, Petitioner will be subject to indefinite detention. He has been deemed ineligible for bond under recent precedent of the Board of Immigration Appeals. There is no other avenue for Petitioner to be released from this unlawful detention. For these reasons, he prays that this Court will grant his release.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

13. Petitioner entered the United States seeking asylum on January 20, 2018 and was assigned alien number . See Exhibit A.
14. Petitioner entered the United States without inspection or admission and was immediately detained by US Customs and Border Patrol agents. See id. He was released on his own recognizance on January 22, 2018. See Exhibit B. Respondents asserted that his release was pursuant to Section 236, 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a). See id.
15. Rather than being detained for expedited removal proceedings, Petitioner was released and placed into full removal proceedings under Section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. § 1255). See Exhibit A. This permits him to pursue any applications for relief that might entitle him to remain in the United States.
16. Petitioner's immigration proceedings take place within the immigration courts administered by EOIR. Petitioner has applied for asylum and is permitted to remain in the United States until a final determination has been made on his application.
17. Despite his pending relief and order of release on his own recognizance, Petitioner was detained by US Immigration and Customs Enforcement officers on or around January 8, 2026. He was unlawfully arrested without a warrant in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a). His detention also violated the conditions of his release because Respondents did not revoke their previous decision releasing him on his own recognizance. Respondents did not undertake any legal process before detaining him.
18. Petitioner continues to be unlawfully detained by Respondents. See Exhibit C.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT I

Violation of Fifth Amendment Right to Due Process

19. The above paragraphs are realleged and incorporated herein.
20. The Department of Homeland Security has unlawfully detained Petitioner under “mandatory detention” authority reserved for aliens who are in the process of entering the United States, 8 U.S.C. § 1225.
21. This section of the Immigration and Nationality Act is reserved for individuals arriving in the United States. Petitioner was not arriving in the United States at the time of his detention; he had been in the United States for more than seven years.
22. Petitioner’s detention violated the Immigration and Nationality Act and his due process rights because he was detained without “a warrant issued by the Attorney General” as required by Section 236(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.
23. Having been unlawfully detained, Petitioner requests the only appropriate relief from this Court: “release from unlawful detention”. Dep’t of Homeland Sec. v. Thuraissigiam, 591 U.S. 103, 107 (2020).
24. There is no other avenue for release that Petitioner can seek. Respondents have determined that all individuals like Petitioner are ineligible for bond and must be detained. The Executive Office for Immigration Review has issued precedential decisions holding that immigration judges unequivocally have no jurisdiction to entertain granting bond in Petitioner’s exact circumstances. See, e.g., Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).

25. Petitioner's warrantless arrest and continued detention are violations of his rights under the Fifth Amendment of the US Constitution.

COUNT II

Violation of Petitioner's Order of Release

26. The allegations in the above paragraphs are realleged and incorporated herein.

27. Regulations at 8 CFR § 236.1(c)(9) and (g) require specific procedures to release or revoke the release of an individual. This regulation also limits the authority to make these decisions to specific enumerated officers.

28. At the time Petitioner was detained, Petitioner's release on his own recognizance had not been lawfully revoked.

29. Respondents violated the provisions at 8 CFR § 236.1(c)(9) because they did not make individualized findings specific to Petitioner's circumstances.

30. Respondents violated the provisions at 8 CFR § 236.1(c)(9) because Petitioner's custody determination was not rendered by one of the specified officers.

31. Petitioner's detention is unlawful because the Department of Homeland Security violated the regulations and procedures at 8 CFR § 236.1(c)(9).

32. This unlawful detention and violation of existing regulations also violates the Administrative Procedure Act. See 5 U.S.C. § 706(2).

33. Petitioner requests release from detention because he has a valid order of release on his own recognizance which has not been revoked.
