Re: Conde Chacon v. Genalo, No. 25-cv-631 (DG)

Dear Judge Gujarati:

I write to request a brief adjournment on the Order to Show Cause scheduled for Tuesday, February 11th at 12:30 PM on the petitioner's habeas petition. I have consulted with the government per AUSA Kimbery Francis, who stated she would consent.

Pursuant to the Court's prior order, the government yesterday filed documents that require a response before the Order to Show Cause hearing, and I am unable to provide a response until I conduct further investigation. Mr. Conde has been moved to Pennsylvania since the filing of this petition, and I have not had the opportunity to meet with him regarding this new information. I need to discuss this matter with him.

I also have a new scheduling conflict this morning due to an emergency meeting with the government for a different client, which will run late and cut into the time for the Court hearing.

I respectfully request a 7-day extension to respond to the government's letter before the matter is set down for a hearing shortly thereafter.

If the Court is not inclined to grant this adjournment, if the matter can be set down to after 3 PM today, after which my meeting will be over, it would be highly appreciated. The government would be available at that time.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ S. Michael Musa-Obregon
