It is now 4:55PM CST on February 10, 2026, and the Petitioner has not been released. A family contact arrived at the Henry Whipple Building around 2:00PM CST, anticipating release, and waited in the parking lot until 4:37PM CST. At that time, the family contact contacted, upon advice, the family contact then sought admission to the building to wait in the lobby. Petitioner's family contact was requested to just sit in the lobby and wait for the Petitioner's release. While I was on the phone with the family contact, he made verbal connection with someone at the ERO office at the Whipple Building to whom the family contact stated "I am here to pick to pick up Alfonso Perez Juarez who was supposed to be released at four pm today and I have his lawyer on the phone"; in response the ERO officer indicated that "I'll go check it out".

The family contact remains waiting in the lobby of the Whipple Building.
