Re: Parada Cruz v. Noem et al Case Number: 2:26-cv-01110-SJB

Dear Judge Bulsara:

We respectfully write to inform the Court that our office has recently been retained by Petitioner in the above-referenced matter. In reviewing the docket, we have learned that oral argument is currently scheduled for April 6, 2026 at 11:00 a.m.

Unfortunately, undersigned counsel has a pre-existing scheduling conflict on that date and time and is therefore unable to appear in person for the scheduled oral argument.

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Court either:

- Permit counsel to appear virtually or telephonically for the April 6, 2026 proceeding; or
- Adjourn the oral argument to a mutually convenient date, preferably on a Friday or Monday, subject to the Court's availability.

This request is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay. We apologize for any inconvenience to the Court and greatly appreciate the Court's consideration. We will promptly confer with opposing counsel regarding this request and advise the Court of their position, if required.

Thank you for Your Honor's time and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Pallvi Babbar, Esq.
