IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF KANSAS

DILSHOD SIDIKOV, Petitioner, v. CRYSTAL CARTER, Warden, FCI-Leavenworth; TODD LYONS, Acting Director, ICE; KRISTI NOEM, Secretary of Homeland Security; and PAMELA BONDI, Attorney General, Respondents.	)	Case No. 26-3041-JWL

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE TO § 2241 HABEAS PETITION AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This matter is before the Court on the petition of Dilshod Sidikov ("Petitioner") for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241. Petitioner, a noncitizen, alleges that his detention is improper because his removal is not significantly likely in the reasonably foreseeable future. In compliance with the Court's Order to Show Cause, Doc. 3, Respondents submitted their response to the Petition and the Court's Order to Show Cause on April 2, 2026. Doc. 5. Respondents respectfully submit this supplemental response to provide the Court with updates since Respondents' initial response brief was filed.

Petitioner was interviewed by the Russian Consulate in Houston, Texas on April 7, 2026. Exhibit 1, Joseph L. Carroll Decl., ¶ 3. A travel document was subsequently issued on the same day, valid until April 21, 2026. Id. The travel document was valid for 14 days, as has been standard practice by the Russian Consulate. Id. Petitioner was previously scheduled for removal from the United States via commercial flight on April 18, 2026. Id. ¶ 4; see also Doc. 5-1, ¶ 34. The trip, however, was cancelled due to delays in the issuance of visas for the escorting officers. Id.

Following the cancellation of the commercial flight, Petitioner was scheduled for removal from the United States via charter flight on or about April 25, 2026. Id. ¶ 5. He was subsequently transferred to the Adams County Correctional Center in Natchez, Mississippi on April 23, 2026.[1] Id. From there, he would be transferred to another facility for staging and scheduled for an interview with the Russian Consulate for the issuance of another travel document. Id.

The April 25, 2026, charter flight was cancelled, but Petitioner is currently scheduled for removal on another flight in early May. Id. ¶ 6. As of today's date, Petitioner remains detained at the Adams County Correctional Center in Mississippi, pending removal. Id. ¶ 8. Based on the above and the ongoing efforts to effectuate removal, ERO believes that there is a significant likelihood that Petitioner will be removed from the United States in the reasonably foreseeable future. Id. ¶ 7.

For these reasons and the reasons stated in Respondents' response brief (Doc. 5), Respondents respectfully request that the habeas petition be denied.

Respectfully submitted,

RYAN A. KRIEGSHAUSER
