Re: Ais Ganguev v. J.L. Jamison, et al., Civ. No. 26-1976

Dear Judge Pappert:

I represent the government in the above-referenced action. I am writing to clarify the record in this case. Specifically, when I filed Respondents' Opposition to the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus earlier today, I did not have in my possession any documentation noting when petitioner's parole expired and thus stated, upon information and belief, that Petitioner's parole expired on or about one year after he first entered the United States. See ECF 3 at 4 n.4. The government has since received a document titled "Interim Notice Authorizing Parole," which shows that Petitioner's parole expired on January 17, 2025. I have attached that Notice here, for the Court's reference.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID METCALF
United States Attorney

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement

Date: January 17, 2024
In Reference to: [redacted]

INTERIM NOTICE AUTHORIZING PAROLE

This letter is to inform you that U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has decided to parole you from its custody pursuant to its authority under section 212(d)(5)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. This notice is being issued to you in lieu of Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, see 8 C.F.R. § 235.1(h)(2), and you should maintain a copy of this letter in your possession at all times.

Your parole authorization is valid for one year beginning from the date on this notice and will automatically terminate upon your departure or removal from the United States or at the end of the one-year period unless ICE provides you with an extension at its discretion. ICE may also terminate parole on notice prior to the automatic termination date. Parole is entirely within the discretion of ICE and can be terminated at any time and for any reason. Your parole is not valid for work authorization and is not an admission in lawful status.

Parole is conditioned on you complying with the terms and conditions of your release. You must notify ICE and the immigration judge of any address correction or address change. You must report for every scheduled hearing before the immigration court and every appointment as directed by ICE (including for removal from the United States should you become subject to a final removal order). You must not violate any local, State or Federal laws or ordinances. You must comply with any other specified conditions if identified separately.

I certify that I received a copy of this notice.
