MOTION FOR DISCOVERY

Your Honor,

Last Thursday, accidentally(as usual, on the halfway), around 3-4 PM, I saw my DO J. Jones.
I asked him about his Declaration, and my mandatory detention. He told me that it's all lawyers doing.
Because a month ago, he told me, he feel sorry for me, knowing all my information and saw all my papers. He also told me that, I am not supposed to be here. If it's up to him, he will release me long time ago. A nice guy, working only few months.
I also asked him about falsified documents, that Respondents sent to this Court.
He said, he never saw anything, he never did anything, he doesn't, even, has my file.
Take into consideration the fact that my deportation officer don't know nothing about anything,
I think there is sufficient showing to establish " good cause" to discovery to proof my claim.
Because, here is a unique and complex jurisdictional issues involved.
Bracy v. Gramley, Warden, 520 US 899.
The All Writs Act, 28 USC §1651, gave Federal courts the power to "fashion appropriate models of procedure", 394 US, at 299, including discovery, to dispose of habeas petitions"as law and justice require".

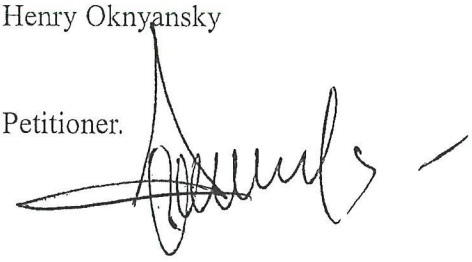

Although, given the facts of this particular case, it would be an abuse of discretion not to permit any discovery. Rule 6(a) makes it clear that the scope and extent of such discovery is a matter confided to the discretion of the District Court.
But the floor established by the Due Process Clause clearly require a "fair trial in a fair tribunal", Withrow v. Larkin, 421 US 35, 46(1975).

I respectfully request that this Honorable Court will direct Respondents to produce all communications between ICE, Office of Principal Legal Adviser, US Attorneys.
Any and all telephone logs, all emails between agencies and departments.
DO J. Jones, SDDO Stephens, her supervisors, Atlanta ICE/ERO Office, FBI, US Attorney's office, any other departments and agencies, who involved, if any.
This will help the Court to find the truth, who and why falsified my documents, who is responsible for perjury and presented to this Court.

Respectfully submitted on this, 8 day of June, 2026

Henry Oknyansky

Petitioner.
