Honorable Joshua D. Wolson
Judge, United States District Court

Re: Marlon Brando Ribeiro v. J.L. Jamison, Warden, Federal Detention Center, Philadelphia, et al.
Civil Action No. 2:26-cv-2326

Dear Judge Wolson:

Please accept this letter brief in response to the Court's April 10, 2026 Order that Respondents advise the Court whether they oppose Mr. Ribeiro's Petition and, if so, whether they intend to make any arguments other than those the Government made in Kashranov v. J.L. Jamison, Case No. 2:25-cv-05555-JDW, 2025 WL 3188399 (E.D. Pa. Nov. 14, 2025) and Olimov v. Jamison, No. 26-cv-532-JDW, 2026 WL 596155 (E.D. Pa. Mar. 3, 2026)." ECF No. 3.

Respondents oppose the petition. This matter is legally and factually distinguishable from Kashranov and Olimov. Petitioner here is subject to mandatory detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)—not § 1225(b)(2)(A)—because he was initially processed for expedited removal when he attempted to enter the United States without authorization. See Exhibit 1 (I-860 Notice and Order of Expedited Removal). We acknowledge that this Court did not accept the Government's arguments in it's decision in Villarreal Torres v. Jamison, No. 2:26-cv-02000, ECF No. 12 (E.D. Pa. Apr. 7, 2026), another expedited removal case.

The Government briefly restates its position here. That Petitioner is no longer in expedited removal proceedings under § 1225 and is now in standard removal proceedings under § 1229a does not change the statutory basis for detention.[1] Petitioner is returned to his "detention status" when his parole ends.

1 Multiple district courts in this jurisdiction (including this Court) have rejected this argument. See, e.g., Talabadze v. Rose, et al., No. 26-cv-360 (E.D. Pa Jan. 30, 2026)

In this case, DHS processed Petitioner for expedited removal pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1) after he entered the United States without inspection. See Exhibit 1. Petitioner claimed a fear of return to his home country and ultimately DHS placed him into standard removal proceedings under 8 U.S.C. § 1229a. See Exhibit 2 (Notice to Appear). Unlike in the Villarreal Torres case, the petitioner in this matter was paroled into the United States pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5) to facilitate this process. See Exhibit 3 (interim notice authorizing parole for one year from the date of the notice). This parole has since terminated, and Petitioner has now returned to his detention status at the time of his parole—i.e., mandatory detention under § 1225(b)(1).

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID METCALF
United States Attorney

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

NOTICE TO APPEAR

In removal proceedings under section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act:

File No: A [redacted]

In the Matter of:
Respondent: BRANDO RIBEIRO, Marlon currently residing at:

c/o DHS Otay Mesa Detention Center, 7488 Calzada de la Fuente, San Diego, CA 92154 619-661-4071

(Number, street, city, state and ZIP code) (Area code and phone number)

☐ You are an arriving alien.

☒ You are an alien present in the United States who has not been admitted or paroled.

☐ You have been admitted to the United States, but are removable for the reasons stated below.

The Department of Homeland Security alleges that you:

1) You are not a citizen or national of the United States;
2) You are a native of Brazil and citizen of Brazil;
3) You entered the United States at an unknown location on or about 8/7/2021;
4) You did not then possess or present a valid immigrant visa, reentry permit, border crossing identification card, or other valid entry document;
5) You were not then admitted or paroled after inspection by an immigration officer.

On the basis of the foregoing, it is charged that you are subject to removal from the United States pursuant to the following provision(s) of law:

Section 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), as amended, as an immigrant who, at the time of application for admission, is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa, reentry permit, border crossing card, or other valid entry document required by the Act, and a valid unexpired passport, or other suitable travel document, or document of identity and nationality as required under the regulations issued by the Attorney General under section 211(a) of the Act.

Section 212(a)(6)(A)(i) of the Act, as amended, as an alien present in the United States without being admitted or paroled, or who has arrived in the United States at any time or place other than as designated by the Attorney General.

☒ This notice is being issued after an asylum officer has found that the respondent has demonstrated a credible fear of persecution or torture.

☐ Section 235(b)(1) order was vacated pursuant to: ☐ 8CFR 208.30 ☐ 8CFR 235.3(b)(5)(iv)

YOU ARE ORDERED to appear before an immigration judge of the United States Department of Justice at:

EOIR OTM, 7488 CALZADA DE LA FUENTE, SAN DIEGO, CA 92154

(Complete Address of Immigration Court, including Room Number, if any)

on 10/18/2021 (Date) at 8:30AM (Time) to show why you should not be removed from the United States based on the charge(s) set forth above.

Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are in removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 1003.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents that you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing. At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear, including that you are inadmissible or removable. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge. You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of voluntary departure. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

One-Year Asylum Application Deadline: If you believe you may be eligible for asylum, you must file a Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. The Form I-589, Instructions, and information on where to file the Form can be found at www.uscis.gov/i-589. Failure to file the Form I-589 within one year of arrival may bar you from eligibility to apply for asylum pursuant to section 208(a)(2)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), in writing, with your full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court and the DHS immediately by using Form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to your local DHS office, listed on the internet at http://www.ice.gov/contact/ero, as directed by the DHS and required by statute and regulation. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 1241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after your departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

U.S. Citizenship Claims: If you believe you are a United States citizen, please advise the DHS by calling the ICE Law Enforcement Support Center toll free at (855) 448-6903.

Sensitive locations: To the extent that an enforcement action leading to a removal proceeding was taken against Respondent at a location described in 8 U.S.C. § 1229(e)(1), such action complied with 8 U.S.C. § 1367.

Request for Prompt Hearing

Privacy Act Statement

Authority:
The Department of Homeland Security through U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), U.S Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) are authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to Sections 103, 237, 239, 240, and 290 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended (8 U.S.C. 1103, 1229, 1229a, and 1360), and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

Purpose:
You are being asked to sign and date this Notice to Appear (NTA) as an acknowledgement of personal receipt of this notice. This notice, when filed with the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), initiates removal proceedings. The NTA contains information regarding the nature of the proceedings against you, the legal authority under which proceedings are conducted, the acts or conduct alleged against you to be in violation of law, the charges against you, and the statutory provisions alleged to have been violated. The NTA also includes information about the conduct of the removal hearing, your right to representation at no expense to the government, the requirement to inform EOIR of any change in address, the consequences for failing to appear, and that generally, if you wish to apply for asylum, you must do so within one year of your arrival in the United States. If you choose to sign and date the NTA, that information will be used to confirm that you received it, and for recordkeeping.

Routine Uses:
For United States Citizens, Lawful Permanent Residents, or individuals whose records are covered by the Judicial Redress Act of 2015 (5 U.S.C. § 552a note), your information may be disclosed in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b), including pursuant to the routine uses published in the following DHS systems of records notices (SORN): DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefit Information System, DHS/ICE-011 Criminal Arrest Records and Immigration Enforcement Records (CARIER), and DHS/ICE-003 General Counsel Electronic Management System (GEMS), and DHS/CBP-023 Border Patrol Enforcement Records (BPER). These SORNs can be viewed at https://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notices-sorns. When disclosed to the DOJ's EOIR for immigration proceedings, this information that is maintained and used by DOJ is covered by the following DOJ SORN: EOIR-001, Records and Management Information System, or any updated or successor SORN, which can be viewed at https://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records. Further, your information may be disclosed pursuant to routine uses described in the abovementioned DHS SORNs or DOJ EOIR SORN to federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement agencies for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

For all others, as appropriate under United States law and DHS policy, the information you provide may be shared internally within DHS, as well as with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement; other government agencies; and other parties for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

Disclosure:
Providing your signature and the date of your signature is voluntary. There are no effects on you for not providing your signature and date; however, removal proceedings may continue notwithstanding the failure or refusal to provide this information.

It is very important that you tell the truth during the interview and that you respond to all of my questions. This may be your only opportunity to give such information. Please feel comfortable telling me why you fear harm. U.S. law has strict rules to prevent the disclosure of what you tell me today about the reasons why you fear harm. The information you tell me about the reasons for your fear will not be disclosed to your government, except in exceptional circumstances. The statements you make today may be used in deciding your claim and in any future immigration proceedings. It is important that we understand each other. If at any time I make a statement you do not understand, please stop me and tell me you do not understand so that I can explain it to you. If at any time you tell me something I do not understand, I will ask you to explain.

SECTION III: CREDIBLE-FEAR INTERVIEW

The following notes are not a verbatim transcript of this interview. These notes are recorded to assist the asylum officer in making a credible-fear determination and the supervisory asylum officer in reviewing the determination. There may be areas of the individual's claim that were not explored or documented for purposes of this threshold screening.

The asylum officer must elicit sufficient information related to both credible fear of persecution and credible fear of torture to determine whether the applicant meets the threshold screening. Even if the asylum officer determines in the course of the interview that the applicant has a credible fear of persecution, the asylum officer must still elicit any additional information relevant to a fear of torture. Asylum officers are to ask the following questions and may use the continuation sheet if additional space is required. If the applicant replies YES to any question, the asylum officer must ask follow-up questions to elicit sufficient details about the claim to make a credible-fear determination.

3.1 a. Have you or any member of your family ever been mistreated or threatened by anyone in any country to which you may be returned?

☒ Yes ☐ No

See Q&A

b. Do you have any reason to fear harm from anyone in any country to which you may be returned?

☒ Yes ☐ No

See Q&A

c. If YES to questions a or b: Was it or is it because of any of the following reasons? (Check each of the following boxes that apply.)

☐ Race ☐ Religion ☐ Nationality ☒ Membership in a particular social group ☐ Political Opinion

Alien's File Number: [redacted]

3.2 ☒ At the conclusion of the interview, the asylum officer must read the following to applicant:

If the Department of Homeland Security determines you have a credible fear of persecution or torture, your case will be referred to an immigration court, where you will be allowed to seek asylum or withholding of removal based on fear of persecution or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture. The Field Office Director in charge of this detention facility will also consider whether you may be released from detention while you are preparing for your hearing. If the asylum officer determines that you do not have a credible fear of persecution or torture, you may ask an Immigration Judge to review the decision. If you are found not to have a credible fear of persecution or torture and you do not request review, you may be removed from the United States as soon as travel arrangements can be made. Do you have any questions?

No

3.3 ☒ At the conclusion of the interview, the asylum officer must read a summary of the claim, consisting of the responses to Questions 3.1 a-c and information recorded in the Additional Information/Continuation section, to applicant.

*Typed Question and Answer (Q&A) interview notes and a summary and analysis of the claim must be attached to this form for all negative credible-fear decisions. These Q&A notes must reflect that the applicant was asked to explain any inconsistencies or lack of detail on material issues and that the applicant was given every opportunity to establish a credible fear.

SECTION IV: CREDIBLE FEAR FINDINGS

A. Credible Fear Determination:

Credibility

4.1 ☒ ~~There is a significant possibility that the assertions underlying the applicant's claim could be found credible in a full asylum or withholding of removal hearing.~~ Applicant was found credible

4.2 ☐ Applicant found not credible because (check boxes 4.3-4.5, which apply):

4.3 ☐ Testimony was internally inconsistent on material issues.

4.4 ☐ Testimony lacked sufficient detail on material issues.

4.5 ☐ Testimony was not consistent with country conditions on material issues.

Nexus

4.6 ☐ Race 4.7 ☐ Religion 4.8 ☐ Nationality 4.9 ☒ Membership in a Particular Social Group

(Define the social group): Sexual Minorities in Brazil

4.10 ☐ Political Opinion 4.11 ☐ Coercive Family Planning [CFP] 4.12 ☐ No Nexus

Credible Fear Finding

4.13 ☒ Credible fear of persecution established.

OR

4.14 ☐ Credible fear of torture established.

OR

4.15 ☐ Credible fear of persecution NOT established and there is not a significant possibility that the applicant could establish eligibility for withholding of removal or deferral of removal under the Convention against Torture.

B. Possible Bars:

4.16 ☐ Applicant could be subject to a bar(s) to asylum or withholding of removal (check the box(es) that applies and explain on the continuation sheet):

4.17 ☐ Particularly Serious Crime 4.18 ☐ Security Risk 4.19 ☐ Aggravated Felon

4.20 ☐ Persecutor 4.21 ☐ Terrorist 4.22 ☐ Firmly Resettled

4.23 ☐ Serious Non-Political Crime Outside the United States

4.24 ☒ Applicant does not appear to be subject to a bar(s) to asylum or withholding of removal.

[Interpreter read Section 1.28 from Form I-870]
The purpose of this interview is to determine whether you may be eligible for asylum or protection from removal to a country where you fear persecution or torture. I am going to ask you questions about why you fear returning to your country or any other country you may be removed to. It is very important that you tell the truth during the interview and that you respond to all of my questions. This may be your only opportunity to give such information. Please feel comfortable telling me why you fear harm. U.S. law has strict rules to prevent the disclosure of what you tell me today about the reasons why you fear harm. The information you tell me about the reasons for your fear will not be disclosed to your government, except in exceptional circumstances. The statements you make today may be used in deciding your claim and in any future immigration proceedings. It is important that we understand each other. If at any time I make a statement that you do not understand, please stop me and tell me you do not understand so that I may explain it to you. If at any time you tell me something I do not understand, I will ask you to explain.

Officer	Applicant
Do you have any questions about what was just read to you?	No
How are you being treated in the detention facility?	Good
How are you feeling today?	I'm fine
Do you have any medical or health conditions?	No

The interview will take place in three parts. First, we will discuss your biographic and entry information. Second, we will discuss the reasons you fear returning to Brazil. Third, I will ask you a series of questions I am required to ask all applicants.

Please give me a moment to summarize the information you provided during your interview. While I do so, I will ask the interpreter to explain the possible outcomes of your case.

☒ Interpreter Please Read Section 3.3 (I-870) to applicant

[Interpreter read Paragraph 3.2 from I-870]
If the Department of Homeland Security determines you have a credible fear of persecution or torture, your case will be referred to an immigration court, where you will be allowed to seek asylum or withholding of removal based on fear of persecution or withholding of removal under the Convention Against Torture. The Field Office Director in charge of this detention facility will also consider whether you may be released from detention while you are preparing for your hearing. If the asylum officer determines that you do not have a credible fear of persecution or torture, you may ask an Immigration Judge to review the decision. If you are found not to have a credible fear of persecution or torture and you do not request review, you may be removed from the United States as soon as travel arrangements can be made.

Officer	Applicant
Do you understand what was read to you?	Yes

Officer	Applicant
I'm now going to read you a summary of your testimony. Since this is only a summary, it will not include everything that you've told me today. Please let me read the whole thing, and then you'll have a chance to make any corrections or changes at the end.	okay

Yes ☒ No ☐

B. Credibility (Select the appropriate box.

- If testimony was credible and the overall CF determination is positive, check box B.1. and briefly explain what evidence supports this determination including addressing any credibility concerns and why in the totality of circumstances the applicant's testimony is credible despite these concerns. If testimony was credible but the overall CF determination is negative, check box B.1. and proceed to section C.
- If testimony was not credible, (1) check box B.2., (2) identify the credibility concern(s), (3) provide the applicant's explanation(s), and (4) address if the explanation is reasonable for each concern. After analyzing all relevant credibility factors, consider them in the totality of the circumstances)

1. Applicant's testimony was credible: Considering the totality of the circumstances and all relevant factors, the applicant's testimony was consistent, detailed, and plausible. Therefore, it is found credible.

The applicant's testimony was internally consistent and externally consistent with CBP records. The applicant's testimony regarding the harm he suffered and his fear to return to Brazil was detailed, consistent, and plausible. In the totality of the circumstances, including the applicant's sophistication, education, and personal circumstances, the applicant was found to be credible.

2. Applicant's testimony was not credible: Considering the identified credibility concern(s), the absence of reasonable explanations for those concerns, and taking into consideration the applicant's individual circumstances, the applicant's testimony is found not credible under the totality of the circumstances and all relevant factors, and, considering any relevant evidence including the types of evidence set out in 208.16(c)(3), there is no non-testimonial evidence that establishes a credible fear of persecution or torture.

Alien's Change of Address/Phone Number Form
Immigration Court

Instructions: To complete this form, fill out all blanks below, including the proof of service, which certifies that you have provided a copy of this form to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). After filling in the blanks and signing both the declaration and proof of service, you must submit the form in person or by mail. If submitting the form by mail, follow the mailing instructions on page two. You must submit a separate copy of this form for each individual in immigration court proceedings (i.e., you must submit a form for each person who has a case pending in immigration court and whom the change of address or phone number affects).

You must file this form with the immigration court within five working days of the change to your address or phone number, or your receipt of a charging document (e.g., a Notice to Appear) with incorrect contact information. The immigration court will send all official correspondence (e.g., date, time, and place of hearings) to the address you provide. The immigration court will only make any change(s) to your address and phone number in EOIR's records upon receipt of this form; the immigration court will not change your address or phone number based on a different address or phone number on pleadings, motions, or other communications with the court.

If you fail to appear at any hearing before an immigration judge when notice of that hearing or other official correspondence was served on you or sent to the address you provided, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) may take you into custody. In addition, the immigration court may conduct your hearing in your absence and enter an order of removal, deportation, or exclusion against you. If the court enters such an order, you may be ineligible for certain forms of relief from removal under the Immigration and Nationality Act as follows:

If you are in removal proceedings: You will be subject to an order of removal for a period of ten years after the date of entry of the final order. You may also become ineligible for voluntary departure, cancellation of removal, and adjustment of status or change of status.

If you are in deportation proceedings: You will be subject to an order of deportation for a period of five years after the date of the entry of the final order. You may also become ineligible for voluntary departure, suspension of deportation or voluntary departure, and adjustment of status or change of status.

If you are in exclusion proceedings: Your application for admission to the United States may be considered withdrawn.

Form EOIR - 33/IC
Revised December 2019

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY
U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement

[redacted]

Date:

In Reference to: A # [redacted]

INTERIM NOTICE AUTHORIZING PAROLE

This letter is to inform you that U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has decided to parole you from its custody pursuant to its authority under section 212(d)(5)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. This notice is being issued to you in lieu of Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, see 8 C.F.R. § 235.1(h)(2), and you should maintain a copy of this letter in your possession at all times.

Your parole authorization is valid for one year beginning from the date on this notice and will automatically terminate upon your departure or removal from the United States or at the end of the one-year period unless ICE provides you with an extension at its discretion. ICE may also terminate parole on notice prior to the automatic termination date. Parole is entirely within the discretion of ICE and can be terminated at any time and for any reason. Your parole is not valid for work authorization and is not an admission in lawful status.

Parole is conditioned on you complying with the terms and conditions of your release. You must notify ICE and the immigration judge of any address correction or address change. You must report for every scheduled hearing before the immigration court and every appointment as directed by ICE (including for removal from the United States should you become subject to a final removal order). You must not violate any local, State or Federal laws or ordinances. You must comply with any other specified conditions if identified separately.

I certify that I received a copy of this notice.
