

JS-6

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
WESTERN DIVISION

GAMALIEL RODRIGUEZ
PASTRANA,

Petitioner,

v.

FERETI SEMAIA, Warden of the Adelanto Detention Center, et al.,

Respondents.

Case No. 2:26-cv-03880-CAS (DTB)

JUDGMENT

Pursuant to the Order Accepting Findings, Conclusions and Recommendations of United States Magistrate Judge,

IT IS ADJUDGED that Immigration and Customs Enforcement's ("ICE") revocation of Petitioner's Order of Supervision and subsequent re-detention violated the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment and federal law. Respondents are to immediately release Petitioner Gamaliel Rodriguez-Pastana (A# ) from custody and reinstate his previous conditions of supervision, and return all property confiscated from him during his arrest and processing into detention.

1 Respondents and their officers, agents, employees, attorneys and persons acting on
2 their behalf in concert or in participation with them are enjoined from: (i) Re-
3 detaining Petitioner without notice and an individualized pre-detention hearing
4 before a neutral arbiter at which it is determined that detention is lawful and 5 warranted under the applicable statutes and regulations either because Petitioner has 6 violated a term of his Order of Supervision or because his removal from the United 7 States is significantly likely in the reasonably foreseeable future, including that 8 Respondents have procured travel documents for Petitioner and that such documents
9 are in the possession of ICE; and (ii) removing Petitioner to any country without 10 appropriate notice and an opportunity to be heard in accordance with any applicable
11 ICE regulations, including the opportunity to assert a torture-based or fear-based 12 objection.
