UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

KARLA BLASINA JIMENEZ-NAVARRO,
by her Next Friend,
KARLA DANIELA MARTINEZ JIMENEZ,
Petitioner,

v.

FIELD OFFICE DIRECTOR, ATLANTA ICE FIELD OFFICE,
Respondent.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2241

Petitioner, KARLA BLASINA JIMENEZ-NAVARRO, through her daughter and Next Friend, KARLA DANIELA MARTINEZ JIMENEZ, respectfully submits this Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus. Petitioner is currently detained by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at Stewart Detention Center in Lumpkin, Georgia.

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 because Petitioner is in custody in violation of the Constitution of the United States. Venue is proper in this District because Petitioner is detained within the Middle District of Georgia.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Petitioner is a native and citizen of Honduras and is currently in immigration detention while pursuing relief in the form of asylum.

Petitioner has been detained for a prolonged period without being afforded a bond hearing or any meaningful opportunity to seek release.

Despite her pending asylum case, Petitioner has not been provided with a scheduled court date, nor has she been given an opportunity to challenge the necessity of her continued detention.

Her detention has become excessive and unreasonable, causing significant emotional, psychological, and familial hardship.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. Prolonged Detention Without Bond Hearing Violates Due Process

The Fifth Amendment prohibits the federal government from depriving any person of liberty without due process of law. Immigration detention, while civil in nature, must still comply with constitutional limits.

Prolonged detention without an individualized bond hearing is unconstitutional. Petitioner has been denied the opportunity to demonstrate that she is neither a flight risk nor a danger to the community.

B. Lack of Procedural Safeguards

Petitioner has been deprived of basic procedural protections. Without access to a bond hearing, she has no meaningful way to challenge her detention.

C. Pending Asylum Claim Supports Release

Petitioner has a pending asylum application, demonstrating her intent to comply with legal proceedings. Continued detention is not necessary to ensure her appearance.

IV. NEXT FRIEND STATUS

This petition is filed by Petitioner's daughter, Karla Daniela Martinez Jimenez, acting as Next Friend. Petitioner is unable to file on her own due to detention, language barriers, and lack of access to legal resources. Her daughter has a significant relationship and is acting in her best interest.

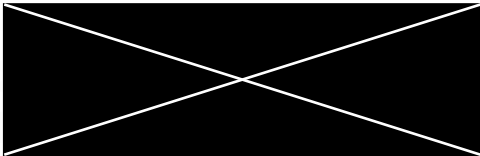

V. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Declare that her continued detention is unlawful;
2. Order her immediate release; or
3. In the alternative, order a prompt individualized bond hearing before an immigration judge.

Respectfully submitted,

Karla Daniela Martinez Jimenez
