In Custody Redetermination Proceedings

Date:

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

The respondent requested a custody redetermination pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 1236. After full consideration of the evidence presented, the respondent's request for a change in custody status is hereby ordered:

☑ Denied, because under the factors that the Court must consider pursuant to Matter of Guerra, 24 I & N Dec. 37 (BIA 2006), Respondent poses a risk of flight. The factors the Court considered most significant under Guerra are as follows: 1) Respondent entered the United States illegally; 2) Respondent has no fixed address in the United States, having been in custody, and his sponsor, while financially solvent, is not a relative; 3) Respondent's only relative in the United States is his daughter, who is also an asylum-seeker and therefore cannot assist him in adjusting his status; 4) Respondent has no work history or any real tie to any community in this country. The Court adds to these facts the reality that Respondent has had his merits hearing and has been denied all relief. At this juncture, the Respondent's ability to obtain relief on appeal is speculative, a factor this Court can add to the calculus of Respondent's flight risk pursuant to Matter of R-A-V-P, 27 I &N Dec. 803 (BIA 2020). Taking all these factors into account, the Court does not find that there is any condition or combination of conditions that would ensure the Respondent's appearance and participation in the court process should he be released.

☐ Granted. It is ordered that Respondent be:
- ☐ released from custody on his own recognizance.
- ☐ released from custody under bond of $
