Case No. 4:26-cv-00917-CDL-ALS

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS UNDER 28 U.S.C. 2241

Petitioner, Rolando Javier Chavez Mejia (A ) , brings this writ of habeas corpus to seek enforcement of his rights to a bond hearing in the U.S. Immigration Court. Petitioner is in the physical custody of Respondents at the Stewart Detention Center, Stewart County, Georgia. He now faces unlawful detention because the Respondents have taken a posture that Petitioner is not entitled to a bond hearing pursuant to 8 USC § 1226(a).

JURISDICTION and VENUE

Petitioner is detained at the Stewart Detention Center, Stewart County, Georgia. The Stewart Detention Center is in the Middle District of Georgia. This court has jurisdiction to grant a writ of habeas corpus to a petitioner who demonstrates that he is being held in custody in violation of federal law 28 USC § 2241(a), (c)(3). Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Georgia, the judicial district in which the petitioner is being detained. Venue is also proper in this court pursuant to 28 USC § 1391(e) because Respondents are employees, officers, and agencies of the United States, and because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in the Middle District of Georgia.

PARTIES

Petitioner is a citizen of El Salvador who has been in immigration detention since May 28, 2026. Petitioner entered the United States as a minor without inspection on or around July 18, 2015. Petitioner was placed in removal proceedings and charged under 212 (a)(6)(A)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as an alien present in the United States without being admitted or paroled, or who arrived in the United States at any time or place other than as designated by the Attorney General.

On June 8, 2022, the Immigration Judge terminated the petitioner's removal proceedings after both the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the petitioner's attorney jointly requested dismissal without prejudice.

On or about May 28, 2026, the Petitioner was reportedly stopped for an alleged speeding violation. Despite possessing a valid driver's license and not being suspected of any offense warranting arrest, Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) officers arrived at the scene and took the Petitioner into custody. At the time of his arrest, the Petitioner held a valid employment authorization document and driver's license, had an approved Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS) petition, and a pending application for adjustment of status. Furthermore, the Petitioner's criminal history is limited to minor traffic infractions, and he is immediately eligible for lawful permanent residence upon approval of his pending adjustment of status application. Petitioner remains detained at the Stewart Detention Center in Stewart County, Georgia, pending removal proceedings. To date, no bond has been set in his case.

Petitioner has continuously resided in the United States for more than ten years and has established substantial positive equities during that time. He is the owner of [REDACTED], a successful business that employs more than 20 individuals and contributes to both the local economy and his community. In addition, he is the father of two children who are United States citizens and has developed strong family and community ties. Through stable employment, business ownership, secure housing, and longstanding residence in this country, Petitioner has demonstrated significant integration into American society and has built a productive and meaningful life in the United States.

The Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), through the Immigration Court, and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) have declined to schedule bond hearings for some individuals who entered the United States without admission or inspection, asserting that immigration judges lack jurisdiction to conduct such proceedings. As a result of this refusal to afford Petitioner a bond hearing pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), Petitioner is left with no adequate remedy other than to seek relief through a writ of habeas corpus.

The government may attempt to rely on Matter of N-A-G-C-, 29 I&N Dec. 662(BIA 2026) to argue that the Petitioner should be treated as an applicant for admission. However, that decision is both factually and legally distinguishable from the present case. As an initial matter, Matter of N-A-G-C-, did not arise within the Eleventh Circuit, which is the controlling federal circuit for this case. Consequently, the legal landscape governing the Petitioner's detention and immigration status is materially different. Significantly, the Eleventh Circuit has rejected the reasoning previously relied upon in Matter of Yajure-Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025), through its decision in Hernandez Alvarez v. Warden, Fed.

Det. Ctr. Miami, Nos. 25-14065/14075, 2026 WL 1243395 (11th Cir. May 6, 2026). As a result, the legal framework applicable within the Eleventh Circuit differs from the framework relied upon by the government in jurisdictions outside this Circuit.

Respondent Kristen Sullivan, Acting Field Office Director, is the Director of the Atlanta Field Office of ICE's Enforcement and Removal Operations division. As such, Kristen Sullivan, Acting Field Office Director, is Petitioner's immediate custodian and is responsible for Petitioner's detention and removal. She is named in her official capacity.

Respondent Markwayne Mullin is the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. He is responsible for the implementation and enforcement of the INA and oversees ICE, which is responsible for Petitioner's detention. Mr. Mullin has ultimate custodial authority over Petitioner and is sued in his official capacity.

Respondent Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is the federal agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the INA, including detention and removal of noncitizens.

Respondent Todd Blanche is the Acting Attorney General of the United States. He is responsible for the Department of Justice, of which the Executive Office for Immigration Review and the immigration court system are component agencies. He is sued in his official capacity.

Respondent Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) is the federal agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the INA in removal proceedings, including for custody redeterminations in bond hearings.

Respondent Jason Streeval is employed as the Warden of the Stewart Detention Center, where Petitioner is detained. He has immediate physical custody of Petitioner. He is being sued in his official capacity.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Petitioner seeks habeas corpus relief based on Respondents' refusal to provide Petitioner with a bond hearing pursuant to 8 USC § 1226(a) and the opportunity for pre-removal release while the removal proceedings are pending.

Petitioner is entitled to a discretionary bond hearing under 8 USC § 1226(a). R.C.M. v. Warden, Stewart Detention Center, 4:26-CV-056-CDL, 2026 WL 147698 (M.D. Ga., 2026); J.A.M. v. Streeval, 4:25-CV-342-CDL, 2025 WL 3050094 (M.D. Ga., 2025).

Petitioner is currently being detained under 8 USC § 1226(a); therefore, petitioner is not subject to mandatory detention.

By denying petitioner a bond hearing under 8 USC § 1226(a) and asserting that he is subject to mandatory detention, respondents violate petitioner's statutory rights.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Petitioner requests that this Court grant the following relief:

- (a) Assume jurisdiction over this matter;
- (b) Issue an order requiring Respondent to conduct a bond hearing under 8 USC § 1226(a) within seven days;
- (c) In the alternative, order Petitioner's immediate release from Immigration and Customs Enforcement Custody;
- (d) Award petitioner attorney's fees and costs under the Equal Access to Justice Act and on any other bases justified; and
- (e) Any other relief this Court feels is fair and just.

Respectfully submitted,

This 8th day of June, 2026.
