 I even have police record and emails I have sent to my case worker/manager indicating the abuse

I then turn myself into Gwinnett County Jail where I turned myself in. Waited for my court hearing, to present my case to the judge. The judge called the DA office confirming my calls record, called my case worker to the stand he confirm my emails and phone & voice mails he received about me being abused at the work release facility, the judge then dismissed the charge and that's when I received the ICE Hold.

I would like the courts to please Grant me a second chance, at or for relief adding to the fact that I respectfully understand my mistakes and the wrong steps I took that led me to this point. I love this Country, its a land that you can't put into words. Its a Beautiful Country Its all I know. Granting me a Relief would be almost like a Rebirth, even if its on supervision, It would gave me a second chance to fix my mistakes, my life. I would be able to take care of my responsibilities, my Beautiful kids are citizens of this super amazing Country, It would gave me a chance to direct them in a more promising path, to watch them grow and enjoy the land of Freedom, I can be the Father Figure they actually need and want in life, their lives. I can take care of my aging parents that are citizens I can go back to school and devote my time and Attention on directing my life in a positive track. I would definitely move with a better head on my shoulders without this relief, my life would be like a blank piece of paper because going back to a place or country that I know nothing about and don't even speak or understand their language including the war going on out there I'm good as dead, not to mention with the

Please I'm on my knees help me get this second chance at this relief, America is my home. I've always been proud to stand up and salute the flag. No matter the decision I have great respect for (United State of America)

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2241

Instructions

1. Who Should Use This Form. You should use this form if
 - you are a federal prisoner and you wish to challenge the way your sentence is being carried out (for example, you claim that the Bureau of Prisons miscalculated your sentence or failed to properly award good time credits);
 - you are in federal or state custody because of something other than a judgment of conviction (for example, you are in pretrial detention or are awaiting extradition); or
 - you are alleging that you are illegally detained in immigration custody.
2. Who Should Not Use This Form. You should not use this form if
 - you are challenging the validity of a federal judgment of conviction and sentence (these challenges are generally raised in a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255);
 - you are challenging the validity of a state judgment of conviction and sentence (these challenges are generally raised in a petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254); or
 - you are challenging a final order of removal in an immigration case (these challenges are generally raised in a petition for review directly with a United States Court of Appeals).
3. Preparing the Petition. The petition must be typed or neatly written, and you must sign and date it under penalty of perjury. A false statement may lead to prosecution.
4. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you will be asked to submit additional or correct information. If you want to submit any legal arguments, you must submit them in a separate memorandum. Be aware that any such memorandum may be subject to page limits set forth in the local rules of the court where you file this petition. If you attach additional pages, number the pages and identify which section of the petition is being continued. All filings must be submitted on paper sized 8½ by 11 inches. Do not use the back of any page.
5. Supporting Documents. In addition to your petition, you must send to the court a copy of the decisions you are challenging and a copy of any briefs or administrative remedy forms filed in your case.
6. Required Filing Fee. You must include the $5 filing fee required by 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). If you are unable to pay the filing fee, you must ask the court for permission to proceed in forma pauperis – that is, as a person who cannot pay the filing fee – by submitting the documents that the court requires.
7. Submitting Documents to the Court. Mail your petition and _____ copies to the clerk of the United States District Court for the district and division in which you are confined. For a list of districts and divisions, see 28 U.S.C. §§ 81-131. All copies must be identical to the original. Copies may be legibly handwritten.

If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the court to file-stamp it and return it to you.
8. Change of Address. You must immediately notify the court in writing of any change of address. If you do not, the court may dismiss your case.
