Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241

Petitioner, Aroldo Alvaro Baraca, A# [redacted] respectfully petitions this Court for a writ of habeas corpus and states as follows:

Petitioner is currently detained by immigration authorities and has been held in custody for a prolonged and indefinite period of time. This continued detention has become excessive and unreasonable and violates Petitioner's constitutional right to due process.

Petitioner is actively pursuing relief through the immigration courts, including a pending appeal before the Board of Immigration Appeals. While Petitioner continues to exercise his legal rights, his detention has become prolonged and no longer serves a legitimate administrative purpose.

Petitioner is not a danger to the community and does not present a flight risk. He has strong family ties in the United States and is the father of four children who depend on him both financially and emotionally. One of his children has developmental challenges and requires ongoing care and stability.

Petitioner is the sole financial provider for his household. His spouse does not work outside the home because she is the primary caregiver for their children, particularly the child who requires additional support. Petitioner's continued detention has placed his family under severe financial and emotional hardship.

The circumstances surrounding Petitioner's detention arise from a family-related misunderstanding and do not indicate that he poses a danger. His spouse supports his release and seeks his return home to assist in caring for their children.

Despite these significant equities, Petitioner remains detained without a meaningful opportunity for release under constitutionally adequate procedures. Continued detention under these circumstances violates fundamental principles of due process.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court:

(1) Issue a writ of habeas corpus;

(2) Order Petitioner's immediate release from custody; or, in the alternative,

(3) Order that Petitioner be provided with a prompt individualized bond hearing before an Immigration Judge; and

(4) Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Aroldo Alvaro Bamaca
