DANIEL CUERVO GONZALEZ,

Petitioner,

v.

WARDEN, BROWARD TRANSITIONAL CENTER, et al.,

Respondents.

_____/

MOTION TO REOPEN CASE

Petitioner respectfully moves this Court to reopen his habeas corpus case, which was administratively closed on June 24, 2026. In support of this motion, Petitioner states as follows:

1. On June 24, 2026, the Court issued an Order denying Petitioner's IFP Motion as legally insufficient and directing Petitioner to either pay the $5.00 filing fee or submit a legally sufficient IFP application by July 13, 2026.

2.Petitioner never received the Court's Order because he was transferred by ICE to a different detention facility shortly after filing his habeas petition. As a result of this transfer, Petitioner did not receive any Court mail, including the Order requiring him to take action. Later, concerned that the Court might have issued deadlines or other directives, Petitioner asked a trusted acquaintance to search his name on PACER to determine whether any filings or orders appeared. That person located the case number and informed Petitioner, which was the first time Petitioner became aware that the Court had issued an Order and that a deadline existed.

3. Because Petitioner did not receive the Order, he was unable to comply with the Court's deadline. Petitioner did not have access to his legal papers, financial documents, or the required forms.

4. Petitioner has now taken steps to comply with the Court's requirements. He is submitting a Notice of Change of Address, an Emergency Motion to Protect Access to the Court, and the required filing fee.

5. Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court reopen this case so that his habeas corpus petition may proceed on the merits.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully asks this Court to reopen his case and accept his filing fee and accompanying motions.

Respectfully submitted,

Daniel Cuervo Gonzalez
