Grounds for Your Challenge in This Petition

13. State every ground (reason) that supports your claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Attach additional pages if you have more than four grounds. State the facts supporting each ground. Any legal arguments must be submitted in a separate memorandum.

GROUND ONE: My continued detention without an individualized determination of whether I should remain detained is unreasonable and violates my right to Due Process.

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

I have been detained by ICE since July 28, 2026, and I remain in immigration custody while my removal proceedings are pending. I have a master hearing scheduled for August 27, 2026, and I have ordered to submit Form I-589 before that hearing. I have not received a bond determination or an individualized assessment of whether my continued detention is necessary.

(b) Did you present Ground One in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes ☑ No

GROUND TWO: My continued detention is causing severe hardship to my U.S. citizen family and does not adequately account for my strong family ties and circumstances.

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

I have a four-year-old daughter who is a United States citizen. I also have a life partner who is a US Citizen and who is currently pregnant with twins. Her pregnancy is high-risk. My continued detention prevents me from supporting my daughter and my pregnant partner during this difficult and medically sensitive time.

(b) Did you present Ground Two in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes ☑ No

GROUND THREE: I have limited criminal history and do not have a record demonstrating that I am a danger to the community.

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

In 2021, I was involved in a traffic accident and served 48 hours in jail. Other than that incident, I have no other criminal history and my record is otherwise clean. I have not been accused of any other criminal conduct.

(b) Did you present Ground Three in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes ☑ No

GROUND FOUR:

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

(b) Did you present Ground Four in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes ☐ No

14. If there are any grounds that you did not present in all appeals that were available to you, explain why you did not: No appeal available.

Request for Relief

15. State exactly what you want the court to do: Order Respondents to provide me with a prompt individualized determination regarding my continued detention and eligibility for release on bond or other conditions; order my release from immigration custody on reasonable conditions, if the Court determines that continued detention is not necessary; and grant any other relief the Court deems just and appropriate.

Declaration Under Penalty Of Perjury

If you are incarcerated, on what date did you place this petition in the prison mail system:

I declare under penalty of perjury that I am the petitioner, I have read this petition or had it read to me, and the information in this petition is true and correct. I understand that a false statement of a material fact may serve as the basis for prosecution for perjury.

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2241

Instructions

1. Who Should Use This Form. You should use this form if
   - you are a federal prisoner and you wish to challenge the way your sentence is being carried out (for example, you claim that the Bureau of Prisons miscalculated your sentence or failed to properly award good time credits);
   - you are in federal or state custody because of something other than a judgment of conviction (for example, you are in pretrial detention or are awaiting extradition); or
   - you are alleging that you are illegally detained in immigration custody.

2. Who Should Not Use This Form. You should not use this form if
   - you are challenging the validity of a federal judgment of conviction and sentence (these challenges are generally raised in a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255);
   - you are challenging the validity of a state judgment of conviction and sentence (these challenges are generally raised in a petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254); or
   - you are challenging a final order of removal in an immigration case (these challenges are generally raised in a petition for review directly with a United States Court of Appeals).

3. Preparing the Petition. The petition must be typed or neatly written, and you must sign and date it under penalty of perjury. A false statement may lead to prosecution.

4. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you will be asked to submit additional or correct information. If you want to submit any legal arguments, you must submit them in a separate memorandum. Be aware that any such memorandum may be subject to page limits set forth in the local rules of the court where you file this petition. If you attach additional pages, number the pages and identify which section of the petition is being continued. All filings must be submitted on paper sized 8½ by 11 inches. Do not use the back of any page.

5. Supporting Documents. In addition to your petition, you must send to the court a copy of the decisions you are challenging and a copy of any briefs or administrative remedy forms filed in your case.

6. Required Filing Fee. You must include the $5 filing fee required by 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). If you are unable to pay the filing fee, you must ask the court for permission to proceed in forma pauperis – that is, as a person who cannot pay the filing fee – by submitting the documents that the court requires.

7. Submitting Documents to the Court. Mail your petition and ___ copies to the clerk of the United States District Court for the district and division in which you are confined. For a list of districts and divisions, see 28 U.S.C. §§ 81-131. All copies must be identical to the original. Copies may be legibly handwritten.

   If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the court to file-stamp it and return it to you.

8. Change of Address. You must immediately notify the court in writing of any change of address. If you do not, the court may dismiss your case.
