De La Cruz Vaca v. Venturella, et al., 9:26-cv-02073 (MAD)

Dear Judge D'Agostino:

Please accept this letter attempting to clarify some factual information. The Decision herein states, "Petitioner does not dispute that after ICE officers attempted to conduct a traffic stop of a vehicle that was the target of an operation." That is disputed. The I-213 filed by Respondents states "a male subject matching the target of the enforcement operation's physical description entered a silver Ford pickup truck…" (Respondents' Exhibit A - I-213, at 2) The truck was registered to Petitioner but it was not the target. (Id) Petitioner was driving his own truck, and Respondents claim that they thought he was someone else. Thus, neither he nor his vehicle was targeted. I apologize for not making that clear enough in the Reply.

Petitioner requests that the Court reconsider the Decision for the reasons discussed in the Reply.

Respectfully,

s/Kathy Manley
Counsel for Petitioner
